CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER PORTFOLIO

The Chief Operating Officer (COO) Portfolio enables quality outcomes for students, staff and partners by delivering University-wide services and operational support to meet the organisation’s evolving needs and strategic goals. The portfolio also works in partnership with teams across the University to drive innovation, transformation and improved performance, within and across functions. It is responsible for the University’s budget and financial performance, and the management of its property and capital.

The COO Portfolio is comprised of six sub-portfolios covering all areas of our operations, including the newly established Operational Performance group. This has been established to drive and manage a program of operational improvement and service transformation, underpinned by contemporary business insights, data modelling, predictive analytics, digital tools, and service planning.

- Business Services
- Finance
- Legal and Risk
- Operational Performance Group
- Research, Innovation and Commercialisation
- Student and Scholarly Services

STUDENT AND SCHOLARLY SERVICES

Student and Scholarly Services provides student administration and services from recruitment and point of enquiry to graduation. This team also delivers wellbeing and scholarly services to students and staff.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY, DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

The University is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to providing a workplace free from all forms of unlawful discrimination, harassment, bullying, vilification and victimisation. The University makes decisions on employment, promotion, and reward on the basis of merit.
The University is committed to all aspects of equal opportunity, diversity and inclusion in the workplace and to providing all staff, students, contractors, honorary appointees, volunteers and visitors with a safe, respectful and rewarding environment free from all forms of unlawful discrimination, harassment, vilification and victimisation. This commitment is set out in the Advancing Melbourne strategy that addresses diversity and inclusion, equal employment opportunity, discrimination, sexual harassment, bullying and appropriate workplace behaviour. All staff are required to comply with all University policies.

The University values diversity because we recognise that the differences in our people's age, race, ethnicity, culture, gender, nationality, sexual orientation, physical ability and background bring richness to our work environment. Consequently, the People Strategy sets out the strategic aim to drive diversity and inclusion across the University to create an environment where the compounding benefits of a diverse workforce are recognised as vital in our continuous desire to strive for excellence and reach the targets of Advancing Melbourne.

ABOUT THE ROLE

Position Purpose:
The Future Students team within the FBE, MGSE and MLS Divisional Group is responsible for coordinating onshore and offshore recruitment strategies, managing enquiries from prospective students, providing outstanding service to prospective coursework and research students, managing the processing and assessment of graduate coursework applications and supporting complex undergraduate selection as required.

The Admissions team manages admissions and selection processes for courses and scholarships that require deep discipline knowledge and provides expert advice and support to course and scholarship selection. The Senior Admissions and Selection Officer (MGSE) assesses applications and administers selection processes for higher degree courses offered by the Melbourne Graduate School of Education (MGSE). The incumbent is required to provide exceptional customer service, quality advice and support when responding to enquiries from prospective students.

The Senior Admissions and Selection Officer (MGSE) takes an active role in the streamlining of admissions processes, development of new systems and procedures to reduce turnaround times, and manages workload expected as an outcome of growing recruitment targets.

The Senior Admissions and Selection Officer will develop and maintain effective working relationships across the Future Students team as well as with academic and professional staff in the broader Division and University context.
