MELBOURNE GRADUATE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

The Melbourne Graduate School of Education (MGSE) fosters staff productivity, growth and engagement in a collective effort to enrich the contribution that education makes to society. We conduct research and teaching that leads to the transformation of education practice both within and beyond the profession. MGSE stimulates learning that enriches the potential of students from around the world, enabling meaningful careers and profound contributions to communities. We provide research leadership, setting the direction for high-impact, innovative and responsive research that addresses the pressing issues of our time. We lead purposeful engagement with society, sharing our resources and expertise as part of collaborative efforts to build a resilient, equitable and sustainable future.

CENTRE FOR PROGRAM EVALUATION

The Centre for Program Evaluation (CPE) is internationally recognised as a leading centre for excellence in program evaluation. CPE is situated within the Melbourne Graduate School of Education at The University of Melbourne. CPE is the only academic evaluation research and training centre in Australasia. The work of all staff at the Centre is underpinned by three interrelated strands of evaluation;

- Advancement of evaluation theory and methods
- Teaching evaluation
- Evaluation practice

CPE has a long history of undertaking projects for government departments, non-government organisations, academic institutions, and community-based agencies across a wide range of policy and program areas with a focus on education, health, social wellbeing, and community development.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY, DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

The University is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to providing a workplace free from all forms of unlawful discrimination, harassment, bullying, vilification and victimisation. The University makes decisions on employment, promotion and reward on the basis of merit.
The University is committed to all aspects of equal opportunity, diversity and inclusion in the workplace and to providing all staff, students, contractors, honorary appointees, volunteers and visitors with a safe, respectful and rewarding environment free from all forms of unlawful discrimination, harassment, vilification and victimisation. This commitment is set out in the University’s People Strategy 2015-2020 and policies that address diversity and inclusion, equal employment opportunity, discrimination, sexual harassment, bullying and appropriate workplace behaviour. All staff are required to comply with all University policies.

The University values diversity because we recognise that the differences in our people’s age, race, ethnicity, culture, gender, nationality, sexual orientation, physical ability and background bring richness to our work environment.

ABOUT THE ROLE

Position purpose:

The Project Manager will be responsible for the day-to-day management and operations of the Assessment for Graduate Teaching (AfGT), which is an assessment instrument developed and implemented by the AfGT Consortium. Responsibilities will include liaison with the Director of the AfGT Management Team, supervising research assistants, liaising with Consortium members and key stakeholders, membership management, assessment implementation for one of the components within the AfGT instrument, data collection and data management systems, data analysis and report writing, organisation and facilitation of cross-institution moderation workshops, management of ethics approvals, monitoring adherence to ethical guidelines, record keeping, executing and coordinating secretarial function including organising investigator and Consortium meetings and workshops, risk management, and quality assurance.

The AfGT is an approved Teaching Performance Assessment (TPA) instrument developed and implemented by a consortium of Australian higher education providers that have Initial Teacher Education (ITE) faculties or schools. The University of Melbourne is the lead institute of the AfGT Consortium, and the AfGT Management Team resides within the Centre for Program Evaluation (CPE) in the Melbourne Graduate School of Education. For more information about the project, please refer to: https://education.unimelb.edu.au/research/projects/assessment-for-graduate-teaching-afgt.

The Project Manager role is crucial for the successful implementation of the AfGT, given the large number of stakeholders and work tracks undertaken by the Consortium at any one time. Apart from the day-to-day management and execution of research tasks, this role will also contribute to other general research, evaluation, and learning and teaching activities within the Centre for Program Evaluation.
