RMIT University

RMIT is a global university of technology, design and enterprise. Our mission is to help shape the world through research, innovation, teaching and engagement and to create transformative experiences for our students, getting them ready for life and work. One of Australia's original educational institutions founded in 1887, RMIT University now has 82,000 students including 12,000 at postgraduate level.

The University enjoys an international reputation for excellence in professional and practical education, applied and innovative research, and engagement with the needs of industry and the cities in which we are located. With three campuses in Melbourne, three in Vietnam (Hanoi, Ho Chi Minh City, Da Nang) and a centre in Barcelona, Spain, RMIT is a truly global university which also offers programs through partners across Asia and Europe.

RMIT is a 5-Star university under the QS Stars international evaluation system and it prides itself on the strong industry links it has forged over its 130-year history. RMIT ranks in the world's top 400 in the 2018 Academic Ranking of World Universities and in the world's top 500 in 2018 Times Higher Education World University Rankings. Furthermore RMIT is among the world's top 100 universities in disciplines including Communication and Media Studies; Business and Management Studies; Accounting and Finance; and Computer Science and Information Systems.

RMIT Vietnam, School of Communication & Design

As an internationally recognised Australian university based in Asia, RMIT Vietnam – a campus of RMIT University – has created an innovative research, teaching and learning culture to support the development of the next generation of professionals in Vietnam. RMIT Vietnam is committed to providing internationally recognised high-quality education and professional training for our students, clients and members of the community.

RMIT Vietnam is an English-speaking university. Degrees are awarded by RMIT University in Australia and all degree programs are recognised by the Vietnamese Ministry of Education and Training (MOET) and are subject to regulation by the Australian Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency. See www.rmit.edu.vn

The School of Communication & Design is committed to providing an international learning environment that encourages cultural awareness, critical thinking, experimentation and, above all, the ability to think differently. Our students develop the competence, confidence and professionalism needed for successful careers in communication, design, fashion, film and video, and languages. ### Position summary

The Bachelor of Communication (Professional Communication) is the largest undergraduate program within the School of Communication & Design. The program comprises strands in advertising, public relations and media/contextual studies. See <https://www.rmit.edu.vn/programs/bachelor-communication-professional-communication>

We seek an experienced Lecturer or Senior Lecturer to help grow the advertising strand against the exciting background of Vietnam's rapidly growing economy. In response to sector trends, input from industry partners and as a result of a recent program review, we are particularly interested in applicants with up-to-date experience in social network strategy, digital branding, consumer analytics, or related specialisations in digital advertising. Skills in content creation for online/mobile/social will also be considered favourably.

A flexible attitude and a demonstrated range of skills related to the conceptualisation, execution and evaluation of advertising and communication courses is a must, as well as the capability and competence to teach and coordinate a range of relevant courses. The appointee is expected to actively promote both the program and the School through membership of - and links to - academic and professional networks. The appointee will be expected to contribute to multiple programs within the School of Communication & Design including the forthcoming Bachelor of Digital Film & Video.

The appointee will be located at RMIT's Saigon South campus and will be expected to travel to other RMIT Vietnam campuses as required. We are happy to consider either a full- or part-time position.
