

SENIOR LECTURER – INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS

DEPARTMENT/UNIT	Department of Management
FACULTY/DIVISION	Faculty of Business and Economics
CLASSIFICATION	Level C
DESIGNATED CAMPUS OR LOCATION	Caulfield campus

ORGANISATIONAL CONTEXT

Everyone needs a platform to launch a satisfying career. At Monash, we give you the space and support to take your career in all kinds of exciting new directions. You'll have access to quality research, infrastructure and learning facilities, and opportunities to collaborate internationally. We're a university full of energetic and enthusiastic minds, driven to challenge what's expected, expand what we know, and learn from other inspiring, empowering thinkers. Discover more at www.monash.edu.

The Department of Management is a large group of management academics in the Asia-Pacific region who teach at the Monash metropolitan Australian campuses and our international locations including China and Italy.

We are committed to the UN's Principles for Responsible Management Education (PRME) and the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) in delivering high quality, relevant, impactful and inclusive management education and research that addresses the societal challenges of our time.

The Department of Management has an international reputation for its disciplinary and multidisciplinary research and teaching in many fields of management including organisational behaviour (OB) and leadership, human resource management and industrial relations, operations and supply chain management, strategic management, international business and management, critical management and organisation studies. Our interests embrace public, private and third sectors at home and overseas.

POSITION PURPOSE

A Level C academic is expected to make significant contributions to the teaching and research effort of the Department, School or Faculty. An academic at this level is also expected to play a service role.

The purpose of the role is to teach units in international business/management, publish in high-ranking management journals, pursue research funding and external engagement opportunities, supervise PhD students, and contribute collegially to administrative and other activities of the Department, Faculty and University.

Reporting Line: The position reports to the Head of Department (Management)

Supervisory Responsibilities: Not applicable

Financial Delegation: Not applicable

Budgetary Responsibilities: Not applicable

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Specific duties required of a Level C academic may include:

1. Subject/unit coordination (including Chief Examiner responsibilities for large or small student cohorts), assessment design and marking
2. Preparation and delivery of classes (e.g., lectures, tutorials) and other teaching activities at undergraduate and graduate levels, on and off campus, through face-to-face and synchronous/ asynchronous online delivery through the learning management system
3. Subject/unit content and delivery enhancement, including the development, implementation and review of educational innovations designed to deliver rich student learning experiences
4. Manage and ensure timely attention to broader administrative functions
5. Conduct high quality research, including publications in high quality outlets (e.g., A/A* ranked management journals as per the Australian Business Deans' Council 2019 list), and apply for internal and external funding for research projects
6. Supervision of Honours and PhD students
7. Engage in professional development, and internal and external service
8. Embrace and support the Faculty's commitment to national and international accreditation
9. Embrace and embed in research, educational and service activities the Faculty's commitment to the principles and values promoted through the UN PRME, the SDGs, and Monash Business School's purpose and vision
10. Attendance at Departmental and/or Faculty meetings and participation in planning or committee work, as required
11. Other duties as directed from time to time

KEY SELECTION CRITERIA

Education/Qualifications

1. The appointee will have:
 - A doctoral in the relevant discipline area or equivalent accreditation and standing.

Knowledge and Skills

2. A significant record of high-quality research in international business, as evidenced by publications in leading journals (e.g., A and A* ranked journals as per the Australian Business Deans' Council 2019 list)
3. Demonstrated excellence in teaching in the discipline area (e.g., through evaluations, innovation in delivery, or curriculum development), including prior subject/unit coordination responsibilities
4. Demonstrated ability to motivate and engage students (e.g., through enriching/immersive learning experiences, and/or diverse/authentic assessment tasks)
5. Demonstrated awareness and valuing of diversity, and inclusive practices, in research, education and internal/external service and engagement

6. An awareness and commitment to the UN's Principles for Responsible Management Education (PRME) and the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)
7. Willingness to mentor and supervise Honours and PhD students as appropriate
8. Willingness to generate research funding
9. High-level interpersonal skills and proven ability to establish collaborative relationships with colleagues and students, and to develop and maintain strong professional links within and external to academia
10. Evidence of participation and meaningful contributions to Departmental, Faculty or University committees or other administrative activities

OTHER JOB RELATED INFORMATION

- Travel to other campuses of the University may be required
- There may be a requirement to work additional hours from time to time
- There may be peak periods of work during which taking of leave may be restricted
- A current satisfactory Working With Children Check is required

GOVERNANCE

Monash University expects staff to appropriately balance risk and reward in a manner that is sustainable to its long-term future, contribute to a culture of honesty and integrity, and provide an environment that is safe, secure and inclusive. Ensure you are aware of and adhere to University policies relevant to the duties undertaken and the values of the University. This is a standard which the University sees as the benchmark for all of its activities in Australia and internationally.