ORGANISATIONAL CONTEXT
Everyone needs a platform to launch a satisfying career. At Monash, we give you the space and support to take your career in all kinds of exciting new directions. You’ll have access to quality research, infrastructure and learning facilities, opportunities to collaborate internationally, as well as the grants you’ll need to publish your work. We’re a university full of energetic and enthusiastic minds, driven to challenge what’s expected, expand what we know, and learn from other inspiring, empowering thinkers. Discover more at www.monash.edu.

The Monash Business School is structured into seven discipline-based departments (Accounting, Banking and Finance, Business Law and Taxation, Econometrics and Business Statistics, Economics, Management, and Marketing) along with the specialist Leadership and Executive Education unit and a number of research centres, units and groups in specialist areas such as behavioural economics, development economics, employment and work, finance, global business, and retail studies. To learn more about the Monash Business School, please visit our website, https://www.monash.edu/business.

To support the core operations and strategic priorities of the Monash Business School, administrative functions are divided into seven dedicated teams: Engagement and Marketing Services, Finance Services, Leadership and Executive Education Services, Operational Services, Performance and Quality Services, Research Services and Student and Education Services. Each team has areas of functional specialisation that are aligned with central functions in the co-delivery of services, fostering excellence in service delivery, and capitalising on strategic opportunities for growth and diversification in research and education.

The Centre for Global Business (CGB) is a multidisciplinary research centre at Monash Business School. The CGB aims at becoming a leading research hub on the challenges, practices and potential for businesses in the global context by leveraging Monash Business School’s research strengths and creating collaborative networks throughout the region. For more information about the Centre, please visit https://www.monash.edu/business/centre-for-global-business.

The Australian Electricity Market Initiative (AEMI) is a new initiative introduced by the Monash Business School and CGB to spur academic research, policy formulation and industry engagement in the electricity sector in Australia. Its goal is “to become the pre-eminent centre for all matters related to electricity markets.” Areas of research that AEMI focuses on include, but are not limited to: network pricing and regulation, wholesale market design, nodal pricing, the effect of vertical integration and the impact of renewables and of storage.
POSITION PURPOSE

A Level A research-only academic is expected to contribute towards the research effort of the University and to develop their research expertise through the pursuit of defined projects relevant to the particular field of research.
