

COVID-19: SA Health Recruitment Drive

Criminal and Relevant History Screening

Criminal and Relevant History Screening

All prospective employees of SA Health are required to present a satisfactory criminal and relevant history screening assessment prior to commencement of employment. This requirement applies to all ongoing/permanent, temporary and casual roles.

How to apply for a National Police Certificate (NPC)

NPC application forms are accessible via the SA Police website or through an organisation accredited by the Australian Criminal Intelligence Commission \(ACIC\).

ACIC has accredited the following list of providers authorised to offer a service directly to the general public, and may support you to submit an application for a police check online:

- > Crime Check Australia Pty Ltd
- > Konze Enterprise Pty Ltd
- > The trustee for Xavier Winston Building Trust
- > Thunder 7 Pty Ltd
- > University of Melbourne (restricted to specific applicants – students for work experience placements)

How to apply for a Working with Children Check

From 1 July 2019, everyone working or volunteering with children must have a Working with Children Check.

Current, valid child-related employment screening checks completed by the Department of Human Services (formerly the Department of Communities and Social Inclusion) will be recognised as a Working with Children Check until they expire.

To apply for a Working with Children Check online, please refer to the Department of Human Services website.
