THE UNIVERSITY OF QUEENSLAND

The University of Queensland (UQ) contributes positively to society by engaging in the creation, preservation, transfer and application of knowledge. UQ helps shape the future by bringing together and developing leaders in their fields to inspire the next generation and to advance ideas that benefit the world. UQ strives for the personal and professional success of its students, staff and alumni. For more than a century, we have educated and worked with outstanding people to deliver knowledge leadership for a better world.

UQ ranks in the world’s top universities, as measured by several key independent ranking, including the Performance Ranking of Scientific Papers for World Universities (45), the US News Best Global Universities Rankings (52), QS World University Rankings (51), Academic Ranking of World Universities (55), and the Times Higher Education World University Rankings (60). UQ again topped the nation in the prestigious Nature Index; and secured a greater share of Australian Research Council grants in 2016 ($24.5 million) than any other university nationally.

UQ has an outstanding reputation for the quality of its teachers, its educational programs and employment outcomes for its students. Our students remain at the heart of what we do. The UQ experience – the UQ Advantage – is distinguished by a research enriched curriculum, international collaborations, industry engagement and opportunities that nurture and develop future leaders. UQ has a strong focus on teaching excellence, winning more national teaching excellence awards than any other in the country and attracting the majority of Queensland's highest academic achievers, as well as top interstate and overseas students.

UQ is one of Australia’s Group of Eight, a charter member of edX and a founding member of Universitas 21, an international consortium of leading research-intensive universities.

Our 50,000-plus strong student community includes more than 13,000 postgraduate scholars and more than 12,000 international students from 144 countries, adding to its proud 230,000-plus alumni. The University has about 7,000 academic and professional staff and a $1.7 billion annual operating budget. Its major campuses are at St Lucia, Gatton and Herston, in addition to teaching and research sites around Queensland and Brisbane city. The University has six Faculties and four University-level Institutes. The Institutes, funded by government and industry grants, philanthropy and commercialisation activities, have built scale and focus in research areas in neuroscience, biomolecular and biomedical sciences, sustainable minerals, bioengineering and nanotechnology, as well as social science research.

This position requires the person to be working 5 days per week, preferably between the hours of 9:30am – 2:30pm.

Duties

Duties and responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

Student Administration

- Reception duties including in-person, telephone and email enquiries from current and prospective students, staff and members of the public, utilising resources and knowledge to provide a high-level of customer support.
- Manage room booking requests for SCMB controlled rooms and ad hoc bookings for centrally controlled rooms. Provide relevant information to external parties who wish to use the Podium or SCMB rooms including trade display gatherings. Assist with podium setup for SCMB functions/teaching.
- Maintain and monitor maintenance of laptops, data projectors, microphones and laser pointers.
- Assist in the administration of assessment such as alphabetising, collation/distribution and data entry and checking.
- Assist with the organisation of school based exams/quizzes/assessment/exam paper viewing sessions and in the process of organising deferred mid semester exams.
• Process applications for student administration-related requests including extensions, and re-marks.
• Use of various IT systems including Microsoft Office Suite (including Word, Excel, Outlook and PowerPoint) and in-house systems (Si-net, iMark, Student e-File, Blackboard, Syllabus Plus, CRM).
• Assist with semester preparation including set up of learning management system sites, results database and preparation of practical manuals.
• Liaise with academic and administrative colleagues across the School/Faculty and University.
• Provide administrative support to Tutor Coordinators as required.
• Maintain and update written office procedures and business calendar.

Other
Ensure you are aware of and comply with legislation and University policy relevant to the duties undertaken, including but not exclusive to:
• the University’s Code of Conduct
• requirements of the Queensland occupational health and safety (OH&S) legislation and related OH&S responsibilities and procedures developed by the University or Institute/School
• the adoption sustainable practices in all work activities and compliance with associated legislation and related University sustainability responsibilities and procedures
• requirements of the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000, the National Code 2007 and associated legislation, and related responsibilities and procedures developed by the University

Organisational Relationships

The position reports to the Manager, Coursework Academic Administration, with day-to-day direction from the Senior Administrative Officers.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Essential
• Completion of a diploma level qualification with relevant work related experience; or completion of a Certificate IV with relevant work experience, or an equivalent combination of experience and/or education/training.
• High level organisational skills and the ability to provide efficient administrative support.
• Demonstrated competence in the use of Microsoft Office applications, particularly Word, Excel, and Outlook.
• Knowledge of University policies and procedures in the area of student administration, or the ability to rapidly acquire such knowledge.
• High level of accuracy and attention to detail.
• Demonstrated customer service experience, showing the capacity to deal with a wide range of clients in a helpful, enthusiastic way.

• Work experience in an open-office or similar teamwork environment.

• Ability to liaise effectively and relate well to a wide range of people.

• Ability to meet deadlines, follow tasks through to completion, prioritise competing work demands and work in an efficient and well organised manner under pressure.
