THE UNIVERSITY OF QUEENSLAND

The University of Queensland (UQ) contributes positively to society by engaging in the creation, preservation, transfer and application of knowledge. UQ helps shape the future by bringing together and developing leaders in their fields to inspire the next generation and to advance ideas that benefit the world. UQ strives for the personal and professional success of its students, staff and alumni. For more than a century, we have educated and worked with outstanding people to deliver knowledge leadership for a better world.

UQ ranks in the world’s top universities, as measured by several key independent ranking, including the CWTS Leiden Ranking (32), the Performance Ranking of Scientific Papers for World Universities (43), the US News Best Global Universities Rankings (42), QS World University Rankings (48), Academic Ranking of World Universities (55), and the Times Higher Education World University Rankings (69). Excluding the award component, UQ is now ranked 45th in the world in the ARWU, and is one of the only two Australian universities to be included in the global top 50.

UQ has an outstanding reputation for the quality of its teachers, its educational programs and employment outcomes for its students. Our students remain at the heart of what we do. The UQ experience – the UQ Advantage – is distinguished by a research enriched curriculum, international collaborations, industry engagement and opportunities that nurture and develop future leaders. UQ has a strong focus on teaching excellence, winning more national teaching excellence awards than any other in the country and attracting the majority of Queensland’s highest academic achievers, as well as top interstate and overseas students.

UQ is one of Australia’s Group of Eight, a charter member of edX and a founding member of Universitas 21, an international consortium of leading research-intensive universities.

Our 52,000-plus strong student community includes more than 16,400 postgraduate scholars and more than 15,400 international students from 135 countries, adding to its proud 250,000-plus alumni. The University has more than 6,600 academic and professional staff (full-time equivalent) and a $1.75 billion annual operating budget. Its major campuses are at St Lucia, Gatton and Herston, in addition to teaching and research sites around Queensland and Brisbane city. The University has six Faculties and four University-level Institutes. The Institutes, funded by government and industry grants, philanthropy and commercialisation activities, have built scale and focus in research areas in neuroscience, biomolecular and biomedical sciences, sustainable minerals, bioengineering and nanotechnology, as well as social science research.

UQ has an outstanding track-record in commercialisation of our innovation with major technologies employed across the globe and integral to gross product sales of $11billion+ (see http://uniquest.com.au/our-track-record).

UQ has a rapidly growing record of attracting philanthropic support for its activities and this will be a strategic focus going forward.

The University of Queensland Enterprise Agreement outlines the position classification standards for Levels A to E.
DUTY STATEMENT

Primary Purpose of Position

The purpose of this position is to coordinate the research team and activities associated with the ARC linkage funded project ‘A community based social identity approach to loneliness’ led by Associate Professor Genevieve Dingle at the School of Psychology. Key partner organisations are the Mt Gravatt Community Centre and the Mt Gravatt Men’s Shed. The Postdoctoral Research Fellow will focus their efforts on developing their expertise in industry stakeholder engagement and liaison, and a range of research methods including longitudinal quantitative data analysis, systematic literature reviews, interview based qualitative analysis and the collection and processing of biomarkers. The Postdoctoral Research Fellow will be supported to develop an emerging research profile in their discipline. At this level, it is expected that the incumbent will contribute to service and engagement roles and activities.

As a Research Focused Academic at Level A, the incumbent will be supported and guided by more senior academic research staff with the expectation of an increasing degree of autonomy over time.

Duties

Duties and responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

Research

- Develop a coherent research program and an emerging research profile.
- Work with colleagues and postgraduates in the development of joint research projects for competitive research funding support.
- Participate in applications for competitive research funding support.
- Publish or exhibit in high quality outlets (often in collaboration with colleagues).
- Assist in the supervision of Honours student and Higher Degree by Research students (as appropriate).
- Review and draw upon best practice research methodologies including taking an open science approach to the project.
- Prepare research publications and progress reports and participate in regular meetings to discuss project objectives, methodology and outcomes.

Service and Engagement

- Actively support external links by cultivating relationships with industry, government departments, professional bodies and the wider community.
- Contribute to internal service roles and processes, including participation in decision-making and service on relevant committees.
- Perform a range of administrative functions as required.
- Any other duties as reasonably directed by your supervisor.

Work Location:

- The position is based in St Lucia, however travel to other campuses and sites may be necessary from time to time which will require adequate travel arrangements to be made by the incumbent
Other

Ensure you are aware of and comply with legislation and University policy relevant to the duties undertaken, including but not exclusive to:

- the University's Code of Conduct
- requirements of the Queensland occupational health and safety (OH&S) legislation and related OH&S responsibilities and procedures developed by the University or Institute/School
- the adoption of sustainable practices in all work activities and compliance with associated legislation and related University sustainability responsibilities and procedures
- requirements of the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000, the National Code 2007 and associated legislation, and related responsibilities and procedures developed by the University

Organisational Relationships

The position reports to Associate Professor Genevieve Dingle, School of Psychology.
SELECTION CRITERIA

Essential

- Completion or near completion of a PhD in the discipline area (emotion research, health, clinical, community, applied social psychology, or similar).
- An emerging profile in research in the discipline area.
- Evidence of publications in reputed refereed journals, Government and industry reports, and presenting at national and international conferences.
- Evidence of contributions towards successfully obtaining external research funding.
- Evidence of an emerging network of industry liaisons and professional contacts.
- Well-developed communication, interpersonal and consultative skills and the ability to work collaboratively with colleagues from a multidisciplinary background.

Desirable

- Developed industry liaisons and professional contacts particularly in the community health services.
- Experience in liaising and collaborating with external agencies to develop co-operative research initiatives.
- Experience in effectively coordinating research projects with multiple stakeholders.
- Good working knowledge of open science approaches to psychological research.

Seminar

Applicants invited for interview may be expected to present a seminar in conjunction with the selection interview process.

Qualification Verification

An appointment to this position is subject to the verification of the highest academic qualification from the conferring institution.

The University of Queensland values diversity and inclusion and actively encourages applications from those who bring diversity to the University. Please refer to the University’s Diversity and Inclusion webpage (http://www.uq.edu.au/equity) for further information and points of contact if you require additional support.
