ABOUT SQRH

SQRH is a joint initiative of The University of Queensland (UQ), University of Southern Queensland (USQ), Darling Downs Hospital and Health Service (DDHHS) and South West Hospital and Health Service (SWHHS) funded by the Commonwealth Department of Health as a University Department of Rural Health. Funding is tied to a contract between UQ and the Commonwealth Department of Health under the Rural Health Multidisciplinary Training Program (RHMT) with funding presently secured to the end of 2018.

Under the funding agreement the SQRH will be expected to -

1. Deliver effective rural training experiences for allied health, nursing and midwifery students (prior to gaining professional registration).
2. Ensure rural training experiences are of a high quality.
3. Develop processes to improve rural student recruitment.
4. Engage with the local community to support the delivery of training to students.
5. Maintain and progress an evidence base and the rural health research agenda.
6. Support improvements in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander health.
7. Provide regional leadership in developing innovative training solutions to address rural workforce recruitment retention.

SQRH is governed by a joint venture agreement between the four parties. The Joint Venture establishes a Governance Board (Board) comprising five voting members – an independent chair and one representative from each of the parties.

ABOUT THE PARTNERS IN SQRH

The University of Queensland

The University of Queensland (UQ) contributes positively to society by engaging in the creation, preservation, transfer and application of knowledge. UQ helps shape the future by bringing together and developing leaders in their fields to inspire the next generation and to advance ideas that benefit the world. UQ strives for the personal and professional success of its students, staff and alumni.

UQ ranks in the world’s top universities, as measured by several key independent ranking, including the CWTS Leiden Ranking (32), the Performance Ranking of Scientific Papers for World Universities (40), the US News Best Global Universities Rankings (42), QS World University Rankings (47), Academic Ranking of World Universities (54), and the Times Higher Education World University Rankings (66). Excluding the award component, UQ is now ranked 45th in the world in the ARWU, and is one of the only two Australian universities to be included in the global top 50.

UQ has a strong focus on teaching excellence, winning more national teaching excellence awards than any other university in the country and attracting the majority of Queensland’s highest academic achievers, as well as top interstate and overseas students. UQ is one of Australia’s Group of Eight, a charter member of edX and a founding member of Universitas 21, an international consortium of leading research-intensive universities. Our 53,000-plus strong student community includes more than 16,400 postgraduate scholars and more than 17,000 international students from 135 countries, adding to its proud 260,000-plus alumni. The University has more than 6,600 academic and professional staff (full-time equivalent) and a $2.15 billion annual operating budget. Its major campuses are at St Lucia, Gatton and Herston, in addition to teaching and research sites around Queensland and Brisbane city. The University has six Faculties and four University-level Institutes. The Institutes, funded by government and industry grants, philanthropy and commercialisation activities, have built scale and focus in research areas in neuroscience, biomolecular and biomedical sciences, sustainable minerals, bioengineering and nanotechnology, as well as social science research.

Darling Downs Hospital and Health Service

The Darling Downs Hospital and Health Service (DDHHS) provides a comprehensive range of high-quality acute, sub-acute, mental health, drug and alcohol, oral health, residential aged care, and community health services. We deliver clinical services to approximately 300,000 people across 26 locations, including the major hospital in Toowoomba, regional and rural community hospitals, residential aged care facilities, multipurpose health services and community clinic facilities. Our services cover the Regional Council areas of Toowoomba, Western Downs, Southern Downs, South Burnett and Goondiwindi as well as Cherbourg Aboriginal Shire Council and part of the Banana Shire Council (community of Taroom), representing an area of approximately 90,000 square kilometres. The Hospital and Health Service has a major teaching role, providing both undergraduate and postgraduate clinical experience for members of the multidisciplinary healthcare team. We have a strong focus on, and commitment to, service delivery and education and training and a thriving culture of research that delivers continuous service improvement and evidence-based care. We are the largest employer in the Darling Downs, employing more than 5,000 people, with revenue of more than $700 million annually.

South West Hospital and Health Service

The purpose of the South West Hospital and Health Service (SWHHS) is to provide safe, effective and sustainable health services that people trust and value. Our purpose, not only gives our Health Service shape and direction but it inspires, motivates and guides us in everything we do as we provide quality health care to our communities.

There are over 26,000 people who live in our catchment area and rely on the public healthcare services that our 700 plus employees provide. We are responsible for the delivery of medical, surgical, emergency, obstetrics, paediatrics, specialist outpatient clinics, mental health, critical care and clinical support services in an area spanning over 319,000 square kilometres. We are responsible for the direct management of four hospitals, seven multipurpose health services, four community clinics and two aged care facilities.

Our culture is one that empowers staff, and encourages leadership, innovation and new ideas, and every single day our workforce makes a positive impact on the community they serve.
