PURPOSE STATEMENT:
RSM has responsibility for undergraduate and postgraduate teaching across a range of management disciplines. The School has a strong focus on evidence-based management and is seeking to appoint an academic staff member to undertake a significant role in teaching and in conducting research of international standing in the field of international business and/or strategic management.

KEY ACCOUNTABILITY AREAS:
Position Dimension & Relationships:
Lecturers/Senior Lecturers are expected to work collegially with academic and professional staff to inform and shape the research and teaching agenda of the School. Lecturers/Senior Lecturers will conduct research of international standing and make active, independent contributions to undergraduate and graduate teaching. They contribute to the intellectual life of the School through seminar and other research activities.

Our College values of Excellence, Robustness, Respect, Collegiality and Unity represent what we care about collectively. We refer to our College values to guide behaviour that helps ensure that we are treating one another well and are working together in the most effective way possible. Our Values and Behaviours are available here.

Role Statement:
Under the broad direction of the Research School Director, the appointee will:

1. Undertake original research with a view to publishing in national and international refereed journals; present research at academic seminars, national and international conferences; and, collaborate with other academic staff both within and outside of the University.

2. Contribute to teaching at undergraduate and postgraduate levels as required. Teaching duties include but are not limited to course design, the preparation and delivery of seminars, lectures, workshops and tutorials, preparation of course material, marking and assessment, and consultations with students.

3. Contribute to the activities of the School, particularly within their discipline area, and participate in School governance. These contributions include, but are not limited to, program coordination and course development, the development of flexible delivery of courses, attendance and participation in academic staff meetings and seminar presentations and involvement in portfolio groups, discipline clusters and committees as required.

4. Seek and secure external funding including the preparation of research proposal submissions to external funding bodies.

5. Contribute to the supervision of students at undergraduate, honours, graduate coursework, and research levels.

6. Comply with all ANU policies and procedures and in particular those relating to work health and safety and equal opportunity.

For assistance please contact HR Division Ph. 6125 3346
7. Other duties as consistent with the classification level of the position
