

PRINCIPAL POLICY ANALYST

INTERGOVERNMENT AND FINANCIAL POLICY BRANCH
ECONOMIC AND FINANCIAL POLICY DIVISION

Why work for us

The work you will undertake is varied and interesting. We contribute to major government activities that improve the wellbeing of Tasmanians and support the Government's management of the State's financial position.

We are a flexible, diverse, inclusive, and supportive workplace with a strong values-based and team oriented culture. For more information about Treasury and what our staff have to say about working for us, visit our website: www.treasury.tas.gov.au/about-us/careers

The position

You will proactively support the development and analysis of policy related to intergovernmental financial relations and state tax issues. This is a great opportunity to transfer or consolidate your skills and undertake complex analysis both independently and as part of team.

What you will work on

- Undertake research and analysis to inform advice about major sources of revenue to the Government, intergovernmental agreements and interjurisdictional policy issues.
- Independently deliver quality output that supports the development of policy and advice on intergovernmental financial relations and state tax issues.
- Develop, maintain and interpret forecasts of various sources of revenue, including GST.
- Build and develop relationships with a range of internal and external stakeholders.
- Support other members of the Branch and Treasury's Executive to represent the State in external forums. You may also represent Treasury on committees and forms as required.
- Perform other allocated duties as required.

Responsibility, direction and supervision

You will operate with considerable independence to determine your priorities, approach, and delivery of your work. You will apply existing frameworks when making decisions and may work on multiple subjects. You will provide informed advice on your work. You will provide recommendations on activities and your supervisor may provide guidance for the implementation.

You will display and promote behaviours that are compliant with: ethical standards; the State Service Code of Conduct and Principles; relevant Work Health and Safety Legislation; policies, procedures and guidelines issued by the Department; and adherence to the principles of equal employment opportunity.

Skills and experience

Our selection panel will assess your skills, experience and ability to perform the role using the following criteria:

COMMUNICATE

- Prepare high level documents and accurate drafts of complex material.
- Clearly explain complex technical issues to others.
- Represent Treasury in your area of expertise. Where possible, negotiate and influence others to get results.

MANAGE OUTPUTS

- Plan, organise, schedule and prioritise within your work area.
- Coordinate with others and negotiate changes to task deadlines and resources.
- Contribute to the work of other team members.
- Promote and contribute to a client focus.

CONCEPTUALISE/ANALYSE/APPLY JUDGEMENT

- Make appropriate decisions on the team's activities and identify solutions and strategies to non-routine problems.
- Make informed, timely and accurate decisions on the team's activities.
- Provide authoritative advice in your area of expertise.

TEAM/LEADERSHIP/BEHAVIOURS

- Lead, inform, guide and mentor others in your area of expertise and promote organisational objectives.
- Actively contribute to a positive team environment and use your networks to get results.
- Model and promote behaviours in line with Treasury's values.

TECHNICAL/PROFESSIONAL

- Demonstrate highly developed knowledge, skill and ability required for the role.
- Desirable - a relevant qualification or equivalent experience.
