Medical Radiation Practice Accreditation Committee

Guide for applicants

This information package includes:

- information about the Accreditation Committee, established by the Chinese Medicine Board of Australia under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (the National Law), as in force in each state and territory
- selection criteria
- selection process, and
- sitting fees and remuneration information.

Introduction

Applications are sought from suitably qualified and experienced persons to be appointed to the Medical Radiation Practice Accreditation Committee (the Committee).

The appointments are made by the Medical Radiation Practice Board of Australia (the Board) under the National Law. Appointments may be up to three years in duration with eligibility for reappointment and are expected to commence in January 2020. However, appointments can be less than three years to maintain fair succession arrangements.

Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency

The Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA) supports the National Boards in managing the registration and notifications for health practitioners and students across Australia.

The AHPRA national office is based in Melbourne with offices in every state and territory to support local boards and committees.

Medical Radiation Practice Accreditation Committee

Functions of the Committee

The Committee is established by the Board in accordance with Part 4 – Accreditation of the National Law to undertake accreditation functions.

The Committee will exercise the following accreditation functions:

- developing accreditation standards for approval by the Board
- assessing education providers and programs of study to determine whether they meet the approved accreditation standards, and
- making recommendations and giving advice to the Board about accreditation functions and associated issues.

What is involved?

Generally, the Committee meets four times a year for a full day face-to-face meeting in Melbourne and via teleconference as needed.

Membership

Committee members are appointed by the Board and will consist of:

- at least one educationalist (either academic or clinical educator)
- at least one academic member holding a senior academic position in an Australian tertiary institution within the discipline of medical radiation science, and
- at least one member with accreditation experience external to the medical radiation profession.

Members of the Board are not eligible for appointment to the Committee.

Selection criteria

The Board recognises the following skills as important for the success of the Committee. In making its decision on appointment, the Board will consider the range, mix of skills and diversity necessary to enable the Committee to fulfill its function.

When completing the application form, applicants are required to demonstrate expertise in all the selection criteria that apply.

- experience in course design and evaluation
- familiarity and currency with both the self-accrediting and non-self-accrediting sector
- experience and currency in own professional field
- experience in health and education regulation
- knowledge of international developments in medical radiation education and/or regulation
- expertise in teaching and research
- experience delivering a program approved by former state boards
- formal qualifications in education

Deputy Chair role

If you would like to be considered for the Deputy Chair position, you must also provide a response to the following criteria:

- Demonstrates leadership: is confident, decisive and acts without fear or favour, is at the forefront of professional accreditation, drives reform and facilitates change.
- Engages with stakeholders: is the spokesperson for the Committee, defines the nature and tone of engagement, builds and sustains stakeholder relationships.
- Chairs effectively: establishes and follows well organised agendas, facilitates input from all members, builds consensus, distils core issues, summarises discussion and confirms decisions ensuring they are accurately recorded

Attributes

In addition to the selection criteria above, the Board will also give regard to the following attributes at interview:

1. Displays integrity: is ethical, committed, diligent, prepared, organised, professional, principles-based and respectful; values diversity; and shows courage and independence
2. Thinks critically: is objective and impartial; uses logical and analytical processes; distils the core of complex issues and weighs up options
3. Applies expertise: actively applies relevant knowledge; skills and experience to contribute to decision-making
4. Communicates constructively: is articulate, persuasive and diplomatic; is self-aware and reflects on personal impact and effectiveness; listens and responds constructively to contributions from others
5. Focuses strategically: takes a broad perspective; can see the big picture; and considers long term impacts
6. Collaborates in the interests of the scheme: is a team player; flexible and cooperative; and creates partnerships within and between boards and AHPRA.

Roles and responsibilities of members

Members are required to act within the powers and functions set out in the National Law.

Under the National Law, members are required to act impartially and in the public interest in the exercise of their functions and put the public interest before the interests of particular health practitioners or any entity that represents health practitioners.

Confidentiality

Members are required to comply with the confidentiality requirements of s.216 of the National Law. Any information that comes to a member's knowledge, in the course of, or because of the member's role is protected information and must not be disclosed or made allowed to be disclosed to another person, organisation or entity.

Conflict of interest

Members are to comply with the conflict of interest requirements set out in, Clause 8 of Schedule 4 of the National Law.

Statutory protections

Under section 236 of the National Law, members of the National Boards and committees are provided with appropriate statutory immunities for exercising their functions in good faith.

Selection process

A selection advisory panel will review all applications and prepare a recommendation for the Board's approval.

Shortlisted candidates will be interviewed to ensure that they have the necessary qualifications, skills and experience for the position.

All applicants will be required to provide certified copies of proof of identity and, if shortlisted, undergo probity checks, which include:

- a national criminal history check
- an Australian Securities and Investments Commission disqualification register check
- a National Personal Insolvency Index check conducted through the Australian Financial Security Authority, and
- a check of the Board's records to ensure that a practitioner applicant is of good standing in the profession.

Referee reports

Referee reports are an important part of the selection process and at least two reports will be obtained for all shortlisted candidates. Applicants are asked to nominate two to three referees who can support their application relevant to the key selection criteria and requirements of the position.

Remuneration

Sitting fees are determined by the Ministerial Council having regard to the remuneration generally applied to regulatory bodies with a substantial influence on the health industry.

The current remuneration (daily sitting fee) is detailed in the table below. The full day rate applies to all meetings or hearings and other assignments in excess of four hours in a day. The fees paid are assessable under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997.

Under the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 members are eligible to receive contributions at 9.5% cent of total annual remuneration to a chosen superannuation fund, payable when you are paid more than $450 in fees in a calendar month.

Role	Attendance (Fee includes preparation and up to 4 hours travel time)	Extra travel time
	Daily sitting fee (more than 4 hours in a day)	Between 4-8 hours	Over 8 hours
Chair	$804	$402	$804
Member	$658	$329	$658

For meetings that are less than 4 hours, half the daily fee is payable.

Expenses

Committee members are entitled to claim travel, accommodation and subsistence expenses incurred as part of participating at face-to-face meetings when required. More information on allowances and the process of payments and claims will be provided if you are appointed.

Government or statutory employees

AHPRA recognises that government and statutory employees may be bound by their employer policy regarding payment for employment undertaken outside of the employer which may alter the way members are paid.

We recommend applicants consult with their employer prior to applying to ensure an acknowledgement of permission can be provided from their employer, allowing them to be appointed as a committee member, and/or receive remuneration, should they be successful.
