Work area profile

Ahpra's overall mission is to protect the public by regulating health practitioners efficiently and effectively in the public interest to facilitate access to safer healthcare for all the community. Website: www.ahpra.gov.au

In partnership with the National Boards, the Notifications function assesses and manages concerns raised by members of the public about a registered health practitioner who is registered with a National Board whose profession is regulated by the National Scheme.

Role purpose

Reporting to the Regulatory Coordinator (Notifications), the Regulatory Support Officer (Notifications) is responsible for the provision of a broad range of administration services to support the work of the notifications teams across different locations applying Ahpra's principles for virtual teams.

This includes the processing of notifications, dealing with enquiries from internal and external stakeholders including practitioners and the public, developing and maintaining correspondence, following relevant document management processes, and completing all relevant administrative duties.

Key Accountabilities

- Actively engage in activities that enable a positive, team-based performance culture and staff wellbeing.
- Create and record new notifications.
- Provide administrative support to enable timely and consistent case management of notifications.
- Apply the notifications risk framework to identify red flag risk factors and escalate as required.
- Provide administrative support for case management strategies, including the coordination and administration of case conferences and case reviews.
- Assist in the preparation and response of correspondence to health practitioners, notifiers and other relevant parties.
- Update and maintain databases including monitoring the accuracy, currency and validity of the data.
- Assist with the consultation and information sharing activities with other entities, including health complaints entities.
- Support responses to requests for information and complaints, including conducting searches for and collating documents, correspondence and other records.
- Other duties as directed by the Regulatory Coordinator (Notifications).
- Health Safety and Wellbeing: Ensuring the workplace provides a safe working environment with the required level of care and respect for its participants. This means to:

- take reasonable care for own and others' health, safety and wellbeing, and
- adhere to Ahpra's workplace health, safety and wellbeing policies and procedures.
