Role responsibilities

- Visit one-on-one with an older person every two weeks for a minimum of a year.
 - Undertake activities that are of interest to the participant. This this may include listening to music together, playing cards or board games, simply having a chat or going on outings together.
 - Maintain regular communication with the Red Cross Program Officer to discuss your visits.
 - Record and submit monthly reports to the Red Cross Program Officer.

Knowledge, skills and experience

- A genuine interest in building friendship and social connections with an older people to ease social isolation.
 - Have an understanding of the complex health issues faced by people as they age and use this understanding and empathy during your visits.
 - Effective social skills, can listen and chat to engage with people, possibly from a diverse cultural background and who may be experiencing loneliness.
 - Are mature, reliable and have confidence to work independently without direct supervision and to seek support and guidance as required.
 - Holding a valid driver's licence and a means of travel would be beneficial.

Check requirements

- A National Criminal History Check prior to start and renewed every three years (Red Cross will arrange this).

Learning and development

- Complete Red Cross online learning as required.
 - Attend Red Cross Volunteer Program Training and ongoing training as required.
