Overview of program

The Werribee Family Services team works within the Western Melbourne Child and Family Services Alliance. The Western Melbourne Child and Family Services Alliance include the 10 family service agencies in the municipalities of Hobsons Bay, Maribyrnong, Melbourne, Moonee Valley and Wyndham. Referrals from Child FIRST that require a family services practitioner are allocated to one of the family services teams within the catchment area.

Family Services provides families with support and counselling, within a managed case plan. Designed to improve the lives of children, Individual family work is complemented by group work and strategies to both engage families with their communities as well as for communities to be more responsive to the needs of children and their families. Qualified paid staff work collaboratively and respectfully with children and families to build upon their existing strengths and to enhance and develop skills and coping strategies.

Position Objectives

1.	Provide an in home family casework service, working in partnership with families to achieve their goals, aimed at enhancing children's development and family functioning.
2.	Conduct behaviourally specific, interactive and holistic assessment, which includes information of family strengths, problems, needs, values, skills and potential barriers to goal attainment.
3.	Work with families to empower them to manage their life situation and to take charge of their lives, including a positive engagement with their community.
4.	Work collaboratively with Child Protection, other professionals and the families' broader social networks to ensure a coordinated support package is in place.
5.	Participate in group work, advocacy and community development as required.

Key responsibilities

The key responsibilities are as follows but are not limited to:

1.	To provide case management and casework responding to client's needs through assertive outreach to clients and responding to crises that occur.
2.	Conduct comprehensive family assessments that identify the health, wellbeing and safety needs of the children involved, and that identify both the capacity and constraints of the families to make necessary changes.
3.	Establish a working relationship with children and families which demonstrates respect and honest communication, particularly about protective concerns and consequences
4.	Strengthen family connections, promoting positive interactions and the safety of children, young people and parents.
5.	Promote positive parenting skills through working with families individually and in groups;
6.	Use a range of therapeutic techniques and approaches to engage with children and families that are reluctant or ambivalent about using support services
7.	Work collaboratively with a range of stakeholders to ensure a coordinated approach to services for children, young people and their families
8.	To be flexible in working hours to respond to family's needs or crises.
