About Uniting

Uniting Vic.Tas is the community services organisation of the Uniting Church. We've been supporting people and families for over 100 years. We work alongside people of all ages in local communities in Victoria and Tasmania. Our services reach to Albury-Wodonga in the north, Mallacoota in East Gippsland, the Wimmera region in the west, and across Tasmania.

We empower children, young people and families to learn and thrive. We're there for people experiencing homelessness, drug and alcohol addiction or mental illness. We support people with disability to live the life they choose. We assist older people to maintain their independence and enjoy life. We provide opportunities to access training and meaningful employment. We're proud to welcome and support asylum seekers to our community. We work to empower people with the information, skills and tools they need to live a healthy, happy life.

As an organisation, we work in solidarity with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people as Australia's First Peoples and as the traditional owners and custodians of this land.

We celebrate diversity and value the lived experience of people of every ethnicity, faith, age, disability, culture, language, gender identity, sex and sexual orientation. We welcome lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, gender diverse and non-binary, intersex, and queer (LGBTIQ+) people at our services. We pledge to provide inclusive and non-discriminatory services.

Our purpose: To inspire people, enliven communities and confront injustice

Our values: We are imaginative, respectful, compassionate and bold

1. Position purpose

Orange Door

The Orange Door bring together different workforces and expertise from partner organisations [including other Community Service Organisations (CSOs) with specialisation in Child Wellbeing, Family Violence, and Persons Using Violence], Aboriginal Services, Family Safety Victoria (FSV) and Department of Families, Fairness & Housing (DFFH)], to create an integrated Orange Door team. The Orange Door is a consolidated intake point for:

- adults, children, young people and families experiencing family violence.
- persons using family violence.
- families in need of support with the care, development and well-being of infants, children and young people.

Uniting holds the Child Wellbeing specialty portfolio.

The main location of the Orange Door Southern Melbourne Area is in Dandenong, but in order to be accessible to clients, access points at other locations, include Cranbourne and Pakenham. Employees may be based at one of the access points.

Practitioner position

Orange Door Practitioners work as part of a multi-agency team to deliver high quality, safe and effective responses to adults, children, young people and families experiencing family violence, persons using violence and families in need of support with the care, development and well-being of infants, children and young people.

The practitioner works with clients to provide information, advice, and an initial assessment with a focus on risk assessment and safety planning. Assessments where there are children/young people involved, use the "best interests" framework. Practitioners may support clients further through providing immediate support, advocacy and referral to other services.

A matrix management model will apply, with Orange Door Practitioners reporting to a Team Leader on a day-to-day basis. This Team Leader may be any employee of any of the organisations comprising the Orange Door. Formal line management and supervision will be provided to all Uniting employees by the Uniting Orange Door Team Leader. Practitioners will also receive support and guidance from Orange Door Practice Leaders.
