Position Summary

A Clinical Teaching Support Administrator provides effective day-to-day logistical support for clinical teaching within UNSW Medicine & Health.

The role reports to the Clinical Teaching Support Officer.

Accountabilities

Specific accountabilities for this role include:

- Act as first point of contact and provide high quality customer service to staff, students and Conjoint for teaching support enquiries.
- Assist with organising logistical aspects of clinical teaching, including scheduling teachers, room resources, timetables, results for clinical campus or discipline, for both 'in person' and online modalities.

- Ensure rooms are set up for relevant clinical and didactic teaching activities. If activities are taking place online, ensure online space is prepared and participants have the required information to attend and participate in a meaningful way.
- Assist to coordinate clinical assessments and exams for clinical campus and/or discipline, working with broader teaching support team for the Medicine program.
- Assist with the maintenance and distribution of learning materials, including the use of technology to enable online learning and using UNSW's learning management systems.
- Work collaboratively with Clinical Teaching Unit Directors, Discipline Education Directors, Clinical Campus Manager, teaching academics and key hospital staff to organise and coordinate clinical teaching.
- Collect program, course and student evaluations and statistics.
- Organise student events as needed, e.g. orientations, ILP/Honours recruitment events
- Maintain equipment for teaching medical students in a clinical campus.
- Support the creation of a cohesive Teaching Support team across the School by participating in relevant projects and activities to improve practices and processes across the team.
- Participate in relevant projects and business improvement activities to support the creation of a cohesive Teaching Support Team, streamline processes and facilitate program, course and resource delivery and development.
- Align with and actively demonstrate the UNSW Values in Action: Our Behaviours and the UNSW Code of Conduct
- Cooperate with all health & safety policies and procedures of the university and take all reasonable care to ensure that your actions or omissions do not impact on the psychosocial or physical health and safety of yourself or others.

Skills and Experience

- Relevant tertiary qualification with subsequent relevant experience or equivalent competence gained through any combination of education, training and experience.
- Demonstrated ability to work collaboratively and productively within a team, but also to take initiative and work independently while managing competing demands.
- Demonstrated experience providing effective customer service and support to clients at all levels.
- Well-developed interpersonal and written and verbal communication skills.
- Advanced time management, organisational and problem-solving skills, including the ability to meet deadlines.
- High proficiency of computer literacy, working with a range of computer systems and applications, including Microsoft Office 365 suite including Teams, OneDrive, Excel, Word, Powerpoint and Outlook and with using UNSW's enterprise systems.
- Demonstrated experience supporting and contributing to projects and initiatives.

- An understanding of and commitment to UNSW's aims, objectives and values in action, together with relevant policies and guidelines.
- Knowledge of health & safety (psychosocial and physical) responsibilities and commitment to attending relevant health and safety training.
