

Lecturer in Therapeutics & Pharmacy Practice

College/Division	Health and Medicine
School/Section	School of Pharmacy and Pharmacology
Location	Launceston Campus
Classification	Level B
Reporting line	Head of School

Position Summary

The University of Tasmania is building a vision of a place-based University with a mission to enhance the intellectual, economic, social and culture future of Tasmania, and from Tasmania, contribute to the world in areas of distinctive advantage. The University recognises that achieving this vision is dependent on the people we employ as well as creating a people-centred University that is values-based, relational, diverse, and development-focused.

We are seeking to appoint a Lecturer in Therapeutics and Pharmacy Practice in the School of Pharmacy and Pharmacology which is part of the College of Health and Medicine.

The Lecturer in Pharmacy Practice and Therapeutics will deliver teaching and coordinate units encompassing therapeutics and pharmacy practice within the Bachelor of Pharmacy and other courses as directed by the Head of School.

The successful candidate will have the knowledge, skills, and willingness to embrace contemporary approaches to teaching and technology to develop and enhance high quality online and face-to-face teaching, particularly in a clinical teaching context.

The position requires research and scholarship aligned with the strategic research priorities of the School and College, bringing drug sciences expertise to the areas of brain science, mental health, genomics, preventative health and chronic disease management. The successful applicant will be encouraged and supported to develop an independent research profile.

We are an inclusive workplace committed to ‘working from the strength that diversity brings’ reflected in our Statement of Values. We are dedicated to attracting, retaining and developing our people and are committed to inclusive principles. We celebrate the range of diverse assets that gender identity, ethnicity, sexual orientation, disability, age and life course bring. Applications are encouraged from all sectors of the community. Tell us how we can make this job work for you.

What You'll Do

- Make a strong and sustained contribution to the University in achieving its strategic objectives and fulfilling its operational responsibilities.
- Provide high-quality contemporary online and face-to-face teaching in undergraduate and postgraduate courses.
- You will coordinate units and commit to continual improvement of the quality of your teaching and the student experience,
- Demonstrate a scholarly approach to teaching and curriculum development, aligning with the University's quality framework and delivery standards.
- Contribute to research in the field of therapeutics and pharmacy practice.
- Increasingly provide academic leadership, particularly in fostering outstanding research and/or learning and teaching.
- Contribute to the development and maintenance of productive and effective links inside the University and locally and nationally with the discipline, relevant interdisciplinary domains, profession, industry and/or wider community.

- Undertake other duties as assigned by the supervisor.

What We're Looking For (success criteria)

- A PhD or equivalent in a relevant field is desirable, however, exceptions may be made for individuals with extraordinary professional competence, clinical skills and experience.
- Registered as a Pharmacist with the Pharmacy Board of Australia.
- Clinical pharmacy practice professional experience, in either a community or hospital setting.
- Clinical expertise with currency in therapeutics with the ability to contribute to discipline research in the field of therapeutics and pharmacy practice.
- Proven experience and demonstrated achievement in the delivery high quality University level learning and teaching in online, clinical and face-to-face environments.
- A record of contributing effectively to building and maintaining effective and productive links locally and nationally with the discipline, profession, industry (where relevant) and wider community.

Other position requirements

- Current Working with Vulnerable People registration (or to be obtained)
- Current 'C' class driver's licence or manual vehicle licence
- Regular intrastate travel between campus as required to deliver teaching and learning outcomes.

University of Tasmania

The University of Tasmania is an institution with an enduring commitment to our state and community, and a strong global outlook. We are committed to enhancing the intellectual, economic, social and cultural future of Tasmania. Our Strategic Direction strongly reflects the University community's voice that our University must be place based but globally connected as well as regionally networked and designed to deliver quality access to higher education for the whole State.

We believe that from our unique position here in Tasmania we can impact the world through the contributions of our staff, students and graduates. We recognise that achieving this vision is dependent on the people we employ, as well as creating a university that is values-based, relational, diverse, and development-focused.

Check out more here:

<https://www.utas.edu.au/jobs>

<https://www.utas.edu.au/careers/our-people-values-and-behaviours>

The intention of this position description is to highlight the most important aspects, rather than to limit the scope or accountabilities of this role. Duties above may be altered in accordance with the changing requirements of the position.

