Our Capability Framework
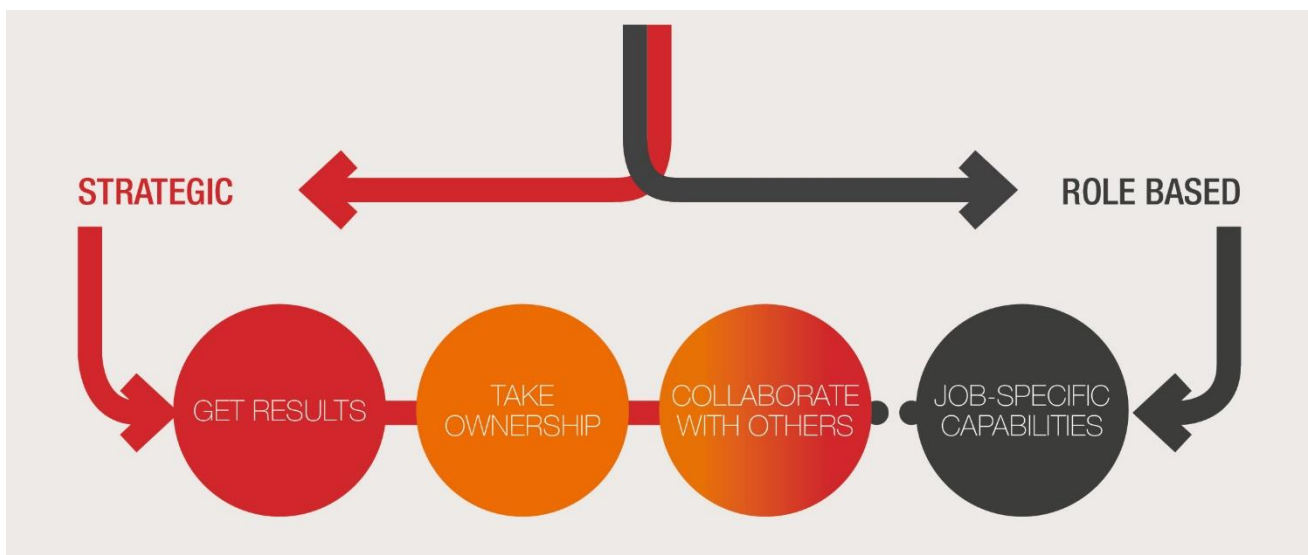

Office of Governance and Corporate Affairs

The Office of Governance and Corporate Affairs (OGCA) leads the coordination and management of the governance of the University and provides executive support to senior committees of the University, including University Council (and its committees), Academic Senate (and its committees), Faculty Boards, and expert compliance committees that the University is required to convene in accordance with national guidelines and legislation.

The Office of Governance and Corporate Affairs is also responsible for providing strategic and operational advice to the Vice-Chancellor, senior executives and staff of the University in relation to University governance, audit and risk management, investigations, appeals and complaints processes, legislative compliance, legal requirements, and policy and records management.

OGCA supports the University in achieving its strategic objectives through the development of mutually beneficial relationships with the stakeholders it supports.

Administrative support, governance and related advisory services relating to the corporate organisation of the University, such as graduations, elections, University Rules and delegations are also provided by OGCA.

The Office has strategic oversight and/or management of the following functions:

- Governance (corporate, academic and information)
- Audit and risk management;
- Investigations, appeals and complaints;
- Legislative compliance;
- Legal services;
- Policy management; and
- Records management.

The Office has four complementary functions:

- Risk Management, Quality and Compliance;
- Complaints Management;
- Governance Services;
- Policy, Information and Records Management; and
- Legal Services.

Position Overview

The Director, Governance has responsibility for managing the business and operations of the Governance Services unit within the Office of Governance and Corporate Affairs, including, in coordination with the University Secretary, the responsibilities of the University Council and its Committees, Academic Senate and its Committees, compliance committees of the University and other University management and academic committees. The position is responsible for providing high-level advice on governance matters to the University Secretary, and manages tasks delegated by the University Council, and Academic Senate relating to all reporting responsibilities (internal and external), University rules, policies and procedures.

The Director, Governance has particular responsibility for the University's coordination and management of reporting against the Higher Education Standards Framework as a key driver of academic quality. This includes the provision of advice to the University community on reporting requirements. The position is also required to effectively manage all governance policies and procedures, which apply across all staff, students, Faculties and Divisions. This includes researching and developing new policy, with reference to the university sector and to administrative law rules and precedent, provision of authoritative strategic advice to staff, students and sections of the University, and management of many of the processes that flow from policy.

The provision of advice on academic governance structures, responsibilities and accountabilities also forms a key responsibility of this position.

Principal Responsibilities

The Director, Governance is responsible and accountable for:

- Working with the University Secretary to establish and implement best governance practices in line with regulatory legislation, standards and frameworks.

- The provision of high-level governance advice, and support (particularly academic governance) to the University Secretary.

- Providing expert knowledge on, and skills in, managing the responsibilities and operations of Academic Senate, and in coordination with the University Secretary, the University Council.

- Ensuring the provision of high-level, quality advice and governance support to the Council and Academic Senate and their committees and support the smooth operation of meetings:

    o Assist in providing members with appropriate induction and professional development activities and ensure they have the information necessary to fulfil their duties.

- o Develop and maintain work plans for all committees of Council and Academic Senate that reflect legislative and regulatory compliance requirements in ensuring academic quality.
- o Maintain a register of conflicts of interests of members and advise the University Secretary of any real or potential conflict of interests arising for members.
- o Maintain a Register of Pecuniary Interests and other registers such as the Reportable gifts register.
- o Act as the main point of contact for members of Academic Senate.
- o Prepare high-quality reports for Council, Academic Senate and their Committees.
- o Work with the University Secretary to maintain strong and productive relationships between Council and Academic Senate.
- o Maintain and manage all actions arising from meetings of Council and Academic Senate and their Committees.
- o Oversee the quality of the secretariat and governance support provided by the Governance Services Unit.
- o Manage continuous improvement processes to maintain currency, meet regulatory responsibilities, and establish best practice.

- Developing and managing governance and academic policy across the University as well as providing authoritative advice on academic policy within the University and externally as required;

- Implementing recommendations from external reviews of University governance (both corporate and academic), and providing leadership to the governance services unit in implementing recommendations;

- Undertaking strategic and operational reviews of the Governance Services Unit, leading and managing the section and making recommendations as required to the University Secretary including completion of operational planning, business continuity and risk management plans;

- Effectively managing the Unit's resources, including the provision of high-level budget advice.

- Developing and managing the University's course accreditation policies and procedures, including compliance with statutory requirements;

- Providing authoritative rules on meeting procedures for all Boards and committees under the responsibility of the Office of Governance and Corporate Affairs and managing the organisation of these meetings;

- Managing the production of the University Handbook and providing authoritative advice and input to other reporting requirements of the University, i.e. Annual Report;

- Acting as the returning officer for the conduct of all elections for academic committees, including the Academic Senate, and the appointment/nomination of members to these committees;

- Undertaking other duties appropriate to the classification, as assigned by the University Secretary.
