INTRODUCTION

At Anglicare Victoria our focus is on transforming the futures of children and young people, families and adults. Our work is based on three guiding pillars, Prevent, Protect, Empower. We offer a comprehensive network of services and seek to ensure the provision of high quality services that will bring about significant improvements in the life experience of the young people, children and families/caregivers with whom we work.

Anglicare Victoria has an official Reconciliation Action Plan (RAP) that bears the Reconciliation Action Trademark. The RAP requires that employees continue to develop their cultural competence so as to maximise opportunities and improved outcomes for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

OVERVIEW OF PROGRAM

The Victims Assistance Program aims to assist victims to effectively manage the damaging consequences of violent crime and to minimise the secondary victimisation sometimes associated with involvement in criminal justice system.

The Koori Engagement Worker will work together with local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander organisations to provide support to clients who have been affected by violent crime. The VAP will achieve this aim by providing quality services that meet the practical, emotional and psychological needs of the victim, prepare victims and support them to navigate the criminal justice system and establish and maintain strong work relationships with people and agencies to assist the delivery of seamless services to victims.

The worker will be co-located at other Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander organisations and/or Victoria Police stations across the region. An expectation of this position is to work closely with Victoria Police members.

The program is funded by the Department of Justice and Regulation and is administered by the Victims Assistance Service.

This position is based in Mildura and Swan Hill with regular travel throughout the Loddon Mallee region as an expectation.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Direct services to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander clients:
