Role purpose

This is a fun, community based activity and forms part of the overall fundraising activities of Australian Red Cross. Funds raised from the Bunnings BBQ supports our many services and programs. As a volunteer for this event, you will be welcoming customers, cooking the barbeque and serving food and drinks as required.

Role responsibilities

- Help with set up and pack down as instructed.
- Interacting with customers and welcoming them to the Red Cross barbeque.
- General support of the function in terms of cooking, serving food and drinks, tidying up and any other tasks that may become relevant.
- Cash handling.
- Assist with cake stalls/awareness table where applicable.

Knowledge, skills and experience

- Comfortable speaking with a broad range of culturally diverse people.
- Ability to work independently or as part of a team to share the workload.

Check requirements

- Not applicable.

Learning and development

- Not applicable.

General conditions

We act always in accordance with the Australian Red Cross Ethical Framework and Child Protection Code of Conduct

We are a Child Safe organisation and all volunteers are required to comply with relevant State and Territory legislation requirements

We comply with the Red Cross Workplace Health and Safety management system

We demonstrate skill, knowledge and behaviour to work with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people in a culturally respectful way

We may be required to assist the organisation on occasion, in times of national, state or local emergencies or major disasters

In all activities, our volunteers are guided by the Fundamental Principles of the Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement
