About Uniting

Uniting Vic.Tas is the community services organisation of the Uniting Church. We have been supporting people and families for over 100 years. We work alongside people of all ages in local communities in Victoria and Tasmania. Our services reach to Albury-Wodonga in the north, Mallacoota in East Gippsland, the Wimmera region in the west, and across Tasmania.

We empower children, young people and families to learn and thrive. We are there for people experiencing homelessness, drug and alcohol addiction or mental illness. We support people with disability to live the life they choose. We assist older people to maintain their independence and enjoy life. We provide opportunities to access training and meaningful employment. We are proud to welcome and support asylum seekers to our community. We work to empower people with the information, skills and tools they need to live a healthy, happy life.

As an organisation, we work in solidarity with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people as Australia’s First Peoples and as the traditional owners and custodians of this land. We celebrate diversity and value the lived experience of people of every ethnicity, faith, age, disability, culture, language, gender identity, sex and sexual orientation. We welcome lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, gender diverse and non-binary, intersex, and queer (LGBTIQ+) people at our services. We pledge to provide inclusive and non-discriminatory services.

Our purpose: To inspire people, enliven communities and confront injustice

Our values: We are imaginative, respectful, compassionate and bold

1. Position purpose

Uniting is part of the Outer East Family Services Alliance (OEFS) providing TOD (The Orange Door); generalist family services; and group programs to municipalities of Maroondah, Knox, and Yarra-Ranges. TOD provides the common intake point for referrals from DHHS Child Protection, schools, other community service organisations and the general community for families that require a Family Service. The objective of family services is to promote the safety, stability and development of vulnerable children, young people and their families and to build child, family and community capacity and resilience.

The Family Services Practitioner is responsible for developing Child and Family Action Plans utilising the “Best Interests’ Framework,” providing direct client support and case management; referral to additional specialists supports and advocacy where required. Through child centred, family focused service delivery they will assist families to provide effective parenting and a stable environment to promote the safety, wellbeing and healthy development of the children. This position will be required to work in the Family Services program located in Croydon. Occasional travel maybe required to other Uniting sites and partner agencies.
