Building an inclusive, diverse and active humanitarian movement based on voluntary service

Role purpose

The In Search of Safety Community Education Program was developed by Red Cross to help build awareness and understanding of the real situations faced by people who come to Australia to seek asylum. It aims to dispel the misunderstandings and myths surrounding asylum seekers through presentations, group work and guest speakers, in order to create a more welcoming Australia. Community Education Volunteers will create awareness and encourage positive thinking around the asylum seeker debate through presenting workshops on these issues to Students in Upper Primary and High Schools as well as to interested community groups. Usually running for an hour and a half, there are plenty of opportunities for students, teachers and community members to ask questions to gain a deeper understanding of the topic. This role will require commitment during office/school hours.

Role responsibilities

- Attendance and participation at the ongoing training sessions for In Search of Safety Educational Program.
- Effective, efficient and engaging delivery of the In Search of Safety presentation at primary, secondary schools and groups within the community as required.
- Work closely with and provide guidance and support to Guest Speakers, respecting their dignity and right to privacy.
- Act as a positive role model and encourage the children to interact positively and meaningfully during the presentation and workshop.
- Operate within the guidelines of the In Search of Safety Community Education Program.
- Remain impartial when representing Red Cross.
- Contribute to program review and evaluation activities.
- Complete relevant administrative processes as required.
- Notify Red Cross in advance if unable to make scheduled workshops.
