

Charles Sturt
University

Position Description

Senior Lecturer in Social Work

School of Humanities and Social Sciences

Faculty of Arts and Education

Classification	Level C
Delegation Band	Delegations and Authorisations Policy (see Section 3)
Nature of Employment	Continuing
Workplace Agreement	Charles Sturt University Enterprise Agreement
Date Last Reviewed	March 2021

Faculty of Arts and Education

The School of Humanities and Social Sciences

The Faculty of Arts and Education is one of three Faculties within the University. Eight Schools and Centres offer a diversity of courses in education, communication, creative industries, social work and human services, library and information studies, theology, humanities, Indigenous Australian studies and Islamic studies.

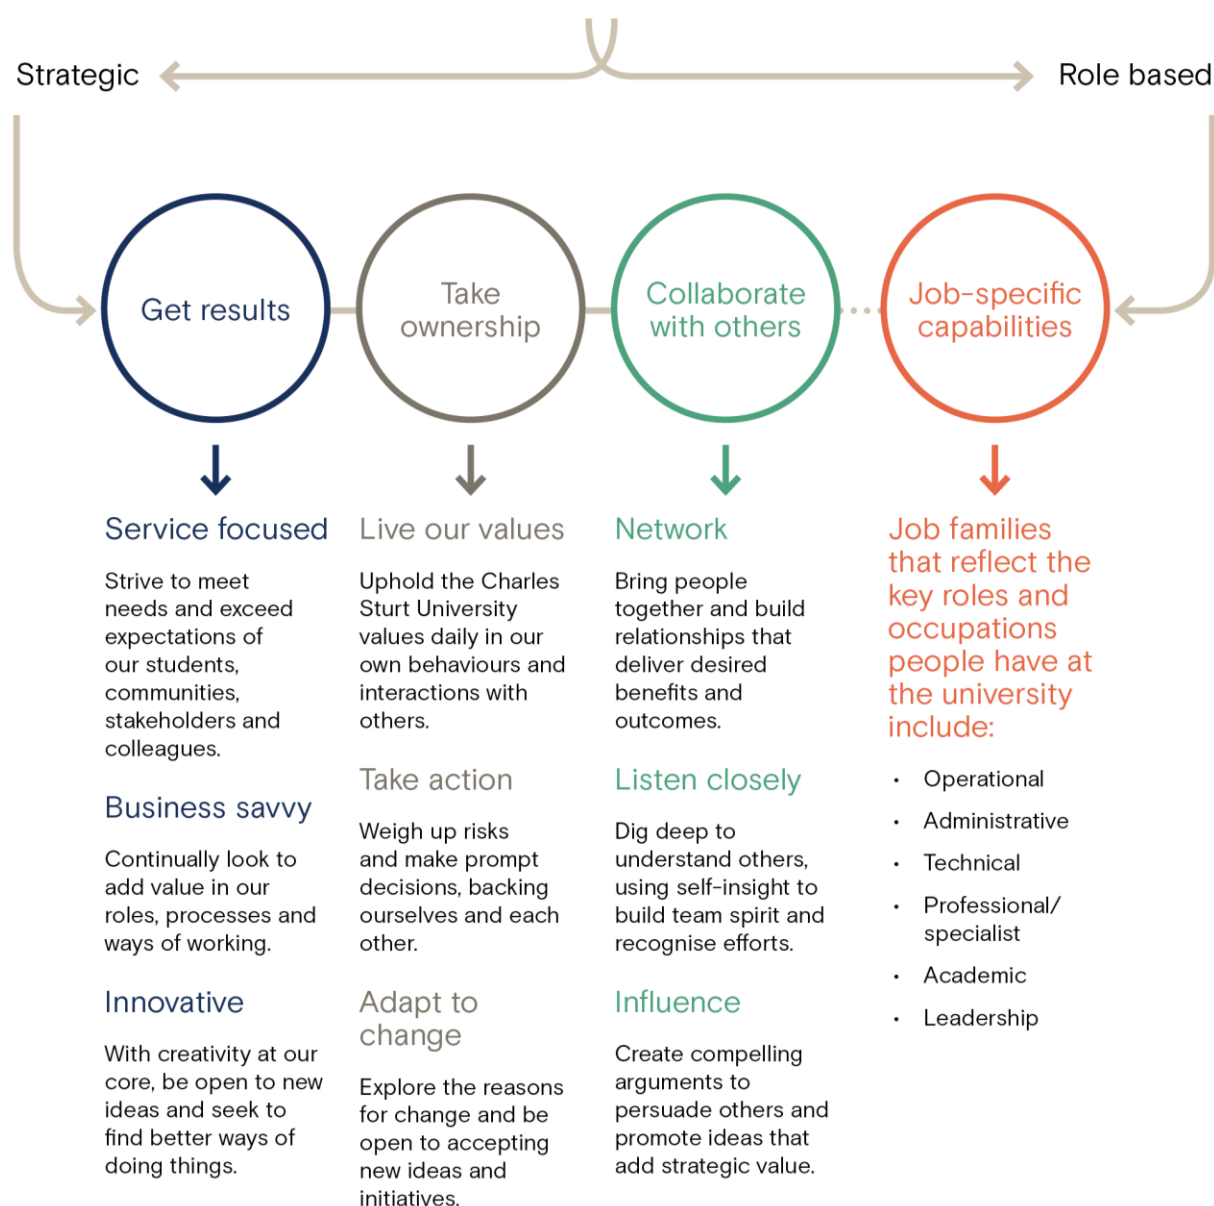

With approximately 9,000 online students and 3,000 on campus students, the Faculty is an innovator in online and blended learning modes. Over 200 academic staff deliver distinctive courses, and are supported by a skilled team of professional staff. On campus courses are delivered at the University's Wagga Wagga, AlburyWodonga, Bathurst, Dubbo, and Port Macquarie campuses, and at other locations including Sydney and Canberra.

Academic staff within the Faculty undertake high quality, impactful research that engages with governments and professional organisations, nationally, internationally and in regional communities, ensuring excellent supervision for Higher Degree Research students.

The School of Humanities and Social Sciences promotes critical thinking and positive community change in the study areas of Social Work and Human Services, Social Sciences as well as Humanities. The School supports community engagement activities including projects in regional health, disability services, community development and gerontology.

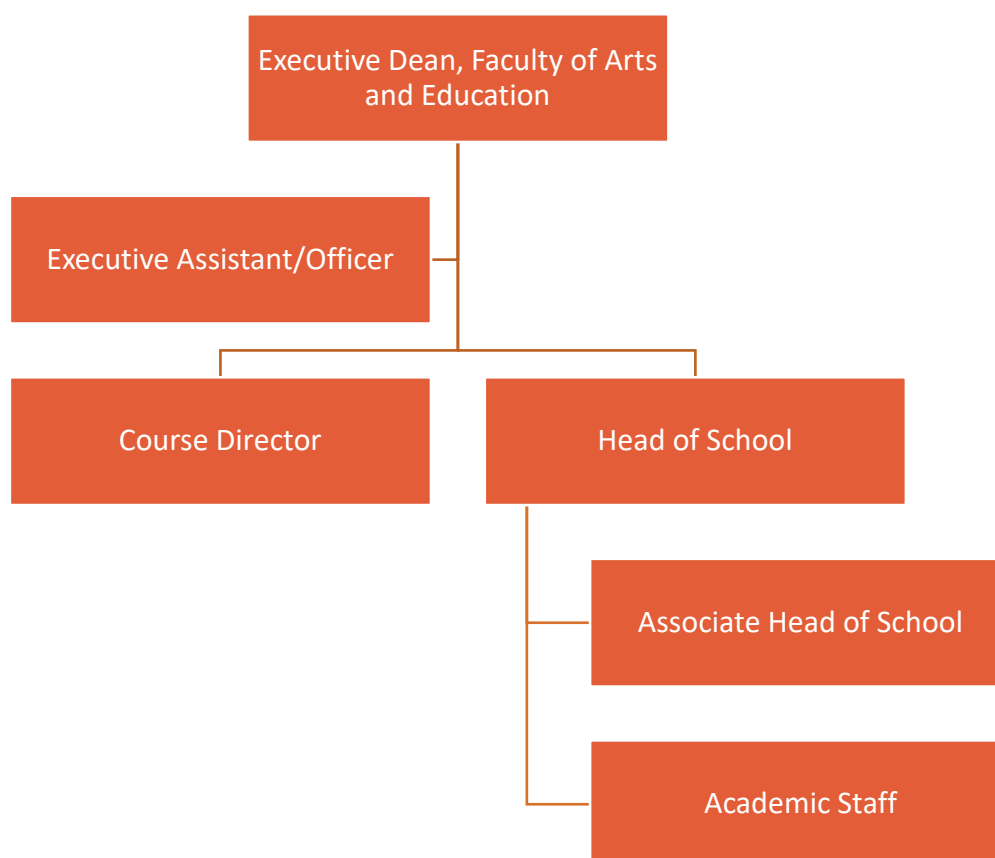

Our University Values

Organisational Chart

Reporting relationship

This position reports to: Head, School of Humanities and Social Sciences

This position supervises: Nil

Position overview

The successful candidate will join a team engaged in teaching in a range of degree programs that prepare students for careers in social work and human services in areas such as mental health, ageing, child and family practice and Australian Indigenous welfare. This variety means that the appointees have the opportunity to teach accredited subjects to social work students as well as related subjects to students in degrees within the human services and to both on-campus and online students at undergraduate and postgraduate levels.

The appointees are also expected to demonstrate excellence in both student engagement, community and industry relations, and research as appropriate to the position. The Lecturer in Social Work will provide academic leadership in the Faculty of Arts and Education to ensure excellence in teaching and learning and research at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels. It is expected that appointees will advance the standing of the Faculty by providing a contribution to academic administration, curriculum development, program coordination and working collaboratively across the Faculty and with external partners where appropriate.

Principal responsibilities

- Make a significant contribution to the development, implementation and promotion of CSU learning and teaching methodologies, processes, technologies and tools to deliver and lead high quality student centred learning opportunities in the relevant discipline and as required to meet the teaching needs of the University. Achieve excellence in teaching in a range of delivery modes, which may include face to face and online teaching and assessment.
- Supervision of Research Higher Degree students.
- Build strong professional relationships with students and provide timely and appropriate consultation and feedback.
- Contribute significantly to collaborative processes to design, deliver and continually improve high quality courses and learning experiences for students including the giving and receiving of constructive feedback.
- Provide leadership and manage the convening, coordination and delivery of subjects and/or courses, as required.
- Provide mentoring and coaching to support the academic development of colleagues.
- Establish and maintain strategic relationships and networks with a range of stakeholders including community, government and industry/professional bodies.
- Expand current knowledge and understanding of the relevant discipline through original contributions to industry engagement and/or scholarly activities or similar.
- Provide leadership and manage small research teams which contributes to the development of the profession, discipline and/or community.
- Conduct ethical, high quality research/creative works to his/her discipline at a national level through scholarship, publication and presentation.

- Develop and execute a research plan which aligns with CSU's Research Plan and objectives including pursuing funding opportunities and maintaining up-to-date research records within CSU's research database.
- Identify and create opportunities for collaborative research projects with internal and external researchers and stakeholders.
- Provide leadership and foster partnerships with the professions that bring direct benefit to the strategic work of the university, in terms of teaching, workplace learning, course profile and/or areas of research strength.
- Make a significant contribution to the development and improvement of policy and practice through involvement in professional/industry associations, accreditation authorities, conference organisations, advisory bodies, and national or international delegations, consistent with the University's Outside Professional Activities Policy.
- Develop, lead and/or evaluate continuing professional education and maintain professional accreditation.
- Lead external professional reviews.
- Actively contribute to the governance, marketing and promotion, and administrative activities to facilitate the work of the Faculty/School.
- Other duties appropriate to the classification as required.

Physical capabilities

The incumbent may be required to perform the following.

- Work in other environments beyond the school, such as other campuses, as well as possible car and air travel and work with a diverse range of staff, students and community members.
- On occasion drive a university vehicle distances up to 500km per day within the terms of the university's Driving Hours Guidelines and Policy.
- Perform sustained reading, writing and computer related activities including keyboard and mouse operation.

Selection criteria

Applicants are expected to address the selection criteria when applying for this position.

Essential

- A. A doctoral qualification, relevant to the discipline or equivalent accreditation and standing and eligibility for membership of the Australian Association of Social Workers (AASW).
- B. A record of significant achievement relevant to the discipline area, and at a national level, in the scholarship of teaching and/or research/creative works or professional activity.
- C. Evidence of and a demonstrated commitment to the delivery of high quality student centred learning and teaching.
- D. Significant knowledge and understanding of the discipline gained through industry experience and/or scholarly activities or similar.
- E. Demonstrated ability to provide effective leadership in an academic setting.

