Building an inclusive, diverse and active humanitarian movement based on voluntary service

Role purpose

Red Cross Youth in Detention Activities program supports young people 10 – 17 years of age at Don Dale Youth Detention Centre. Red Cross volunteers facilitate a cooking session to engage young people in mentoring and positive interactions.

Role responsibilities

- Assist in facilitating approved activities with the young people in detention
- Commit to a roster for a minimum of two sessions in a month to ensure consistent program delivery and relationship building
- Participate in the ongoing improvement and development of the program
- Seek and incorporate feedback from young people into the activities
- Incorporate feedback from other stakeholders into the program
- Maintain safe, supportive and inclusive conditions throughout activity sessions
- Maintain appropriate boundaries with young people participating in the activities
- Inform the Red Cross Youth Justice Coordinator of any issues/incidents as they occur
- Comply with Don Dale Youth Detention Centre visitor policy and procedures, and security and safety requirements

Knowledge, skills and experience

- Understanding of, and capacity to respond appropriately to, challenging behaviours
- Demonstrated ability to interact positively with young people in a structured environment
- Demonstrated communication and social skills with a supportive and non-judgmental attitude towards young people in the youth justice system
- Experience working with young Indigenous people is an advantage

Check requirements

- A National Criminal History Check prior to commencement and renewed every three years (Australian Red Cross will provide the renewal reminders)
- NT Working with Children Check
- Reference Check

Learning and development

- Complete Australian Red Cross Volunteer Induction, Program Training and ongoing training as required
 - Complete Australian Red Cross online learning modules as required
