ABOUT AUSTRALIAN CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY

Mission Statement: Within the Catholic intellectual tradition and acting in Truth and Love, Australian Catholic University is committed to the pursuit of knowledge, the dignity of the human person and the common good.

Australian Catholic University (ACU) is both a Catholic University and a public institution within the Australian higher education sector. ACU is an inclusive community which welcomes students and staff of all beliefs. The University is committed to a strong Catholic ethos and seeks to foster and promote teaching and learning, research and scholarship, and community engagement in the Christian tradition. As valued members of our community, all staff members are expected to have an understanding of ACU's Mission and values and to demonstrate an active contribution to them.

The University shares with universities worldwide a commitment to quality in teaching, research and service. It aspires to be a community characterised by free enquiry and academic integrity.

The University chooses to focus on areas of teaching and research that are closely connected with its particular character as a University that is Catholic, public and national. The focus areas are Theology and Philosophy, Health, Education, and the Common Good and Social Justice.

ACU has over 2,500 staff supporting more than 34,000 students across seven campuses – Adelaide, Ballarat, Brisbane, Canberra, Melbourne, North Sydney and Strathfield.

The structure to support this complex and national University consists of:

- Provost
- Chief Operating Officer & Deputy Vice-Chancellor
- Deputy Vice-Chancellor, Research
- Deputy Vice-Chancellor, Students, Learning and Teaching
- Vice President
- Pro Vice-Chancellor Assisting the Vice-Chancellor and President

Each portfolio consists of a number of Faculties, Research Institutes or Directorates. The Directorate of Identity and Mission drives both the Identity and the Mission of the University. In addition, five Associate Vice-Chancellors and Campus Deans focus on the University's local presence and development of the University at the local 'campus' level.

The University pursues performance excellence and offers an environment where staff are valued and rewarded. Staff are expected to demonstrate a commitment to continuous improvement and to participate fully in resolving issues to achieve and maintain quality standards relevant to role. Further information about a career with ACU is available at www.acu.edu.au.

ACU is committed to diversity and social inclusion in its employment practices. Applications from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, people with disabilities and people from culturally diverse groups are encouraged.

ABOUT THE STUDENTS, LEARNING AND TEACHING PORTFOLIO

The Office of the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Students, Learning and Teaching) is responsible for areas in the University that centre on activities relating to students, learning and teaching and the staff responsible for their delivery.

The Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Students, Learning and Teaching), supports the Vice-Chancellor in providing leadership of major students, learning and teaching activities of the University, including:

- First Peoples and Equity Pathways
- Library
- Learning and Teaching Centre
- Office of Student Success
- Student Engagement and Services
- Student Strategies

ABOUT THE OFFICE OF STUDENT SUCCESS

As part of the wider portfolio of Students Learning and Teaching, the Office of Student Success (OSS) provides students with support services to promote student engagement in university life; to provide opportunities for the development of student leadership; and to provide opportunities for students to develop graduate attributes making them career ready professionals. The Office of Student Success is also responsible for the support of the Student Associations including ACUNSA.

The Director, Office of Student Success manages and leads the professional support services for students which are delivered across the University. These services aim to provide every student with opportunities to assist them with achieving their academic and personal goals.

Student support is available through the following service areas:

- Academic Skills Unit
- Career Development Service
- Counselling Service
- Disability Services
- Student Enrichment Unit

The Office of Student Success also provides student programs for whole of life formation through leadership opportunities which promote the development of character, responsibility, integrity, motivation, humility, spirituality, service and compassion for others.

- PASS (Peer Assisted Study Sessions)
- Membership of the Golden Key International Society
- Early Achievers' Program
- ACU Student Choirs

POSITION PURPOSE

The Student Enrichment Advisor works as part of a national team to implement a range of programs, events and activities in line with the Student Enrichment strategy. Student Enrichment activities encourage a sense of belonging to an inclusive and diverse community, engage the ACU community in its commitment to justice, equity and the common good, foster an appreciation of the sacred in life with particular focus on the Catholic tradition, and uphold the dignity and well-being of each member of the ACU community.

The Student Enrichment Advisor will perform tasks related to the delivery of transition and co-curricular programs for students consistent with the Student Enrichment Strategy. The Student Enrichment Advisor will work as part of a national team and closely with key stakeholders to organise and promote transition and student enrichment programs, events and activities to enhance the student experience.

This position reports to the Student Enrichment Coordinator, who will provide direction and guidance as required. The Student Enrichment Coordinator will be responsible for planning, prioritising, assigning, supervising and reviewing work of the Student Enrichment Advisors and Assistants.

The position holder will need to work evenings and weekends when required. Some local and interstate travel may be required.

POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES

Introduction

A number of frameworks and standards express the University's expectations of the conduct, capability, participation and contribution of staff. These are listed below:

- ACU Strategic Plan 2015-2020
- Catholic Identity and Mission
- ACU Capability Development Framework
- Higher Education Standards Framework
- ACU Service Principles
- ACU Staff Enterprise Agreement including provisions in relation to Performance Excellence

The Capability Development Framework in particular is important in understanding the core competencies needed in all ACU staff to achieve the University's strategy and supports its mission.
