Position Description

Coordinator, Strategic Research

Overview

The Coordinator, Strategic Research Services provides high quality, responsive and customer focused support to strategic research projects and in relation to administration and operational issues to the Research and Innovation Portfolio to facilitate delivery of the portfolio's operations objectives.

This role will ensure that the Research and Innovation portfolio can operate effectively, and that Deakin's research and innovation strategies can promote research excellence and impact.

Reporting to the Senior Manager, Strategic Research Services, the Coordinator will:

- Provide operational project support throughout the project lifecycle.
- Support the development and implementation of work stream project plans to meet overarching project objectives.
- Undertake project activity ensuring the quality and timeliness of deliverables against project objectives.
- Manage project data integrity, ensuring confidentiality, and the safe storage of records and files utilised throughout project implementation.
- Develop and provide the necessary documentation and reporting to support the management and coordination of strategic research initiatives.
- Provide support and advice in relation to administration and operational issues to ensure that the Research and Innovation portfolio can operate effectively.
- Resolve complex matters that may arise with discretion, tact, and diplomacy when communicating, utilising extensive experience and knowledge of university policy and governance.
- Complete administrative tasks in line with university procedures to ensure projects and initiatives are running on time and that appropriate documentation, administration and controls are in place.
- Engage in process improvement activities and adopt new ideas to improve process and practice.
- Establish and demonstrate a high level of learning, energy and commitment and maintain personal integrity and make decisions consistent with university values.
- Plan and prioritise work and critical activities appropriately and recognise barriers to achieving outcomes, find effective ways to deal with them and evaluate progress.
- Actively seek feedback from colleagues and stakeholders on things that are working well and areas for improvement.
