Position description current from November 2017

ABOUT DEAKIN

Deakin University is ranked 213 in the prestigious Academic Ranking of World Universities (ARWU), putting us in the top 2% of universities worldwide. We are also ranked in the top 50 under 50 years of age in both the QS and THES*. 89% of Deakin's research was rated at or above world standards in the Australian Government's Excellence in Research for Australia (ERA) 2015 assessment.

With over 53,000 students (17% international), Deakin is one of Australia's largest universities and its education and research activities have international reach.

Since 1974 Deakin has been committed to lifelong learning; to providing students with choices about how, when and where learning occurs – almost a quarter of Deakin's students study wholly in the cloud (online). Affirming its long held reputation for accessibility, Deakin has rated first in Victoria for student satisfaction for six consecutive years (AGS 2010-2015). In 2014, Deakin received the Premier's Award for international education provider of the year and was named Victoria's leading Education and Training provider in the Victorian Governor's Export Awards in both 2015 and 2016.

Deakin's four faculties offer a comprehensive range of courses across the arts, science, sport, nutrition, architecture, business, law, medicine, optometry, engineering, nursing, allied health, psychology and teaching.

Deakin has always had a strong reputation for innovation and in this digital age, has been driving the digital frontier in the use of new and emerging technologies in research, teaching and community engagement.

Deakin has 4 Institutes and many Strategic Research Centres and is one of only a few Universities to focus on manufacturing research. Deakin's carbon fibre research has captured the attention of automotive and aeronautical manufacturing globally with its Carbon Nexus facility acknowledged as a nationally significant piece of infrastructure embracing new ways of manufacturing in automotive, aerospace and construction industries.

OUR STRATEGY

LIVE the future: Agenda 2020 articulates Deakin's strategy for defining and distinguishing Deakin through to the end of 2020. Deakin aims to harness the power, opportunity and reach of the digital world in all that it does. It aspires to be Australia's premier university in driving the digital frontier – to enable globally connected education for the jobs of the future, and research that makes a difference to the communities we serve.

Deakin has a long tradition of innovation in learning and examples of Deakin's success in the current landscape of digital change include:

- DeakinSync, an innovative communication and collaboration platform for students and staff
- world-first partnership with cognitive computer IBM Watson to provide students with personalised advice 24/7 365 days a year on multiple devices
- technology rich, flexible and stylish learning spaces across all Deakin campuses
- Deakin was awarded the gold global award in the Reimagine Education awards for innovative higher education pedagogies enhancing learning and employability.

FACULTY OF ARTS AND EDUCATION

The Faculty of Arts and Education offers an exciting range of programs in teaching and research in Creative Arts, Humanities, Social Sciences, Education and Indigenous Knowledge and Culture which are vital to improving personal and professional outcomes and contributing to Australia as an equitable, humane and innovative society. The Faculty is arranged around key academic entities: School of Communication and Creative Arts, School of Education, School of Humanities and Social Sciences, and the Institute of Koorie Education.

Leading strategic research centres are the Alfred Deakin Institute for Citizenship and Globalisation, Deakin Motion.Lab - Centre for Creative Arts Research, and the Centre for Research for Educational Impact. Our internationally renowned academics lead thinking, ideas, research and teaching in their respective disciplines.

We work to maintain high international regard for innovation in creative arts, human sciences including humanitarian leadership, criminology, contemporary history, teacher education and Indigenous knowledge. The Faculty's practices are founded on Deakin's longstanding commitment to equity and the achievement of personal, professional and community enhancement through the power of education. Deakin University has a vibrant culture of teaching and research and the Faculty supports a critical mass of academic and professional staff across major disciplines and fosters internationally competitive and strategic research in communications and media, creative and performing arts, education, and humanities and social sciences.

This Faculty acknowledges the success of teaching, research and the excellent work and strong commitment to high quality outcomes that serve our communities. From this strong base, and in the context of a rapidly changing and innovative digital world, we are working to achieve significant advancement for a sustainable future, including leadership nationally and internationally across disciplines. In the context of our core values we aim to achieve highest aspirations with agility through:

- educating through exciting existing and new courses in response to demand, innovation and professional readiness
- advancing international standing in teaching and research through strategic collaboration for high quality outcomes
- embracing Indigenous knowledge, teaching and research through close connections with the Institute of Koorie Education
- collaborating seamlessly between Schools and Research Centres for stronger outcomes in teaching and research
- expanding internationalization of teaching and research through strong partnerships and recruitment
- accelerating cross-university and external relationships to improve the experience of students, staff and communities
- achieving increased success for students, colleagues and the communities we serve.

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

The School of Education is one of the larger schools in the University and operates across 4 campuses - Melbourne Burwood, Geelong Warrnambool and Cloud (online). It is a leading provider of primary and secondary teacher education, early childhood educator preparation, educational leadership and adult, vocational and applied learning education. Our strong partnerships with Deakin Alliance schools promote an applied approach to preservice and ongoing teacher education.

It also offers a range of innovative and flexible postgraduate and higher degree by research programs. Courses are offered to on-campus students at the Melbourne Burwood, Geelong Warrnambool and Warrnambool campuses, and to students throughout Australia and internationally via our Cloud Campus (online). Our strong doctoral programs are preparing the next generation of researchers and academics.

School of Education academics are part of knowledge building communities at local, state, national and international levels. We have a wide range of expertise including: Arts Education; Mathematics Education; Science, Technology and Environmental Education; Health and Physical Education; Language and Literacy Education; Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages; Teaching Languages; Humanities Education; Pedagogy and Curriculum; Educational Policy, Leadership and Internalisation; Early Childhood Education; Applied Learning and Professional Education and Training.

The School has a vibrant research culture and is involved in a number of ARC funded projects. Deakin University's Strategic Research Centre in Education, Research for Educational Impact (REDI) is located within the School of Education. Established in 2016, REDI builds on the previous achievements of CREFI - Centre for Research in Educational Futures and Innovation (2009-2015). Our research is designed around four distinctive programs and led by renowned scholars in collaboration with our highly active and successful educational researchers from a number of disciplines including CRADLE, Deakin University's Centre for Research in Assessment and Digital Learning.

Educational research at Deakin is premised on critical collaborations with key stakeholders, international scholars and agencies, including the government, industry and schools, with purposeful, strategic knowledge transfer through scholarly publications and professional forums to impact policy and practice. Our Partnerships Office offers specialised services for tendered and contract research across the globe.

The School offers a range of undergraduate and graduate initial teacher education programs for early childhood, primary, and secondary teaching as well as continuing professional learning programs in postgraduate degrees. We also offer a suite of Certificate, Graduate Certificate and Masters level courses specialising in the areas of Educational Leadership and Administration, Special Educational Needs, Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages

(TESOL) and Teaching Languages. Many courses have attractive optional pathways and flexible entry and exit points providing versatility for busy professionals. In addition, the School offers the Graduate Certificate of Higher Education Learning and Teaching, designed to meet the requirements for tertiary teaching for academic staff at Deakin.

The School maintains a strong commitment to distance education and flexible learning. We provide the opportunity to 'learn where you live', and this means that the School's students are in all areas of Victoria, as well as across Australia and in international settings. We also welcome students from many regions, including North and South America, Europe, the Middle East and Asia, to study on-campus.
