

Lifestyle and career opportunities

Be at ease connecting to First Nations Country of Ngadjuri, Kaurna, Peramangk, Ngarrindjeri and Ramindjeri.

Enjoy a relaxing catch up with friends at a local winery or experiencing coastal and inland adventures or nature and wildlife? The Barossa Valley, Adelaide Hills, Fleurieu Peninsula and Kangaroo Island has all this and more, right at your doorstep.

Your lifestyle

- Enjoy some of the world's finest food and drink
- Connect to Country and experience wildlife beyond compare
- Great sporting facilities, local fairs, and markets
- Strong sense of community connections and rich First Nations culture.

Your career

Barossa Hills Fleurieu Local Health Network (BHFLHN) encompasses 40% of the population of country South Australia, including the Barossa, Gawler district, Adelaide Hills, Southern Fleurieu and Kangaroo Island. Our network consists of 11 public hospitals, one private hospital (co-located with Southern Fleurieu Health Service), a community health service providing services across the region, and six residential aged care facilities. We are proud of our Aboriginal Health Directorate that provides services and engagement to First Nations communities.

Being a part of BHFLHN means you:

- Will be a valued member of our healthcare team.
- Will be supported with your wellbeing and career development.
- Can take advantage of education and training opportunities.
- May have access to flexible working hours and locations.
