About Uniting

Uniting Vic.Tas is the community services organisation of the Uniting Church. We have been supporting people and families for over 100 years. We work alongside people of all ages in local communities in Victoria and Tasmania. Our services reach to Albury-Wodonga in the North, Mallacoota in East Gippsland, the Wimmera region in the West, and across Tasmania.

We empower children, young people and families to learn and thrive. We are there for people experiencing homelessness, drug and alcohol addiction or mental illness. We support people with disability to live the life they choose. We assist older people to maintain their independence and enjoy life. We provide opportunities to access training and meaningful employment. We are proud to welcome and support asylum seekers to our community. We work to empower people with the information, skills and tools they need to live a healthy, happy life.

As an organisation, we work in solidarity with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people as Australia’s First Peoples and as the traditional owners and custodians of this land. We celebrate diversity and value the lived experience of people of every ethnicity, faith, age, disability, culture, language, gender identity, sex and sexual orientation. We welcome lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, gender diverse and non-binary, intersex, and queer (LGBTIQ+) people at our services. We pledge to provide inclusive and non-discriminatory services.

Our purpose: To inspire people, enliven communities and confront injustice

Our values: We are imaginative, respectful, compassionate and bold

1. Position purpose

The Clinical Care and Support program provides specialist outreach psychological services to carers of children and young people unable to live with their birth parents. The program develops the capability of carers and others in the child/young person’s support network to understand and respond to the child/young person’s needs.

The purpose of the Clinician is to promote and facilitate safe, stable and nurturing environments for vulnerable children and families by positively contributing to children’s adjustment and development through design and implementation of tailored therapeutic interventions. The Clinician also provides professional development promoting the most effective approaches and contemporary knowledge in working with vulnerable children and families to professionals and community stakeholders.

The position is based primarily at Dandenong but will be required to travel to complete clinical tasks such as attending case conferences, and conducting home and school-based services.
