About Uniting

Uniting Vic.Tas is the community services organisation of the Uniting Church. We have been supporting people and families for over 100 years. We work alongside people of all ages in local communities in Victoria and Tasmania. Our services reach to Albury-Wodonga in the north, Mallacoota in East Gippsland, the Wimmera region in the west, and across Tasmania.

We empower children, young people and families to learn and thrive. We are there for people experiencing homelessness, drug and alcohol addiction or mental illness. We support people with disability to live the life they choose. We assist older people to maintain their independence and enjoy life. We provide opportunities to access training and meaningful employment. We are proud to welcome and support asylum seekers to our community. We work to empower people with the information, skills and tools they need to live a healthy, happy life.

As an organisation, we work in solidarity with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people as Australia’s First Peoples and as the traditional owners and custodians of this land.

We celebrate diversity and value the lived experience of people of every ethnicity, faith, age, disability, culture, language, gender identity, sex and sexual orientation. We welcome lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, gender diverse and non-binary, intersex, and queer (LGBTIQ+) people at our services. We pledge to provide inclusive and non-discriminatory services.

Our purpose: To inspire people, enliven communities and confront injustice

Our values: We are imaginative, respectful, compassionate and bold

1. Position purpose

This position delivers the Victorian Family Preservation and Reunification (FPR) Response as an evidenced based response, working collaboratively with children and families to provide a rapid, intensive and sustained intervention aimed at preventing at risk children entering or re-entering care. The response will link to and build upon existing child and family services within the broader system providing an enhanced continuum of care, better support, and will achieve measurable outcomes.

The target groups are children subject to an unborn report to Child Protection, highly vulnerable children aged 0-5 years, adolescents aged 10-14 years who have had multiple Child Protection reports or are on Child Protection Orders, those under two years old that child risk factors include reports to Child Protection; those with disability issues impacting their care; and adolescents with challenging behaviours. The parental risk factors include a history of care; young parents; mental health / drug and alcohol issues and / or presence of family violence.

The FPRR Practitioner role is critical in implementing a wrap around, evidence informed case management approach. The Family Preservation and Reunification (FPR) team work in close partnership with identified partner agencies. The FPR Response will be culturally safe and utilise a relational approach that is adaptable and responsive to family and individual needs, and key case management frameworks. The work is strengths based and child and family centred, integrating intensive assessment, care team planning, safety and risk planning and parenting strategies to
