

Senior Industry Fellow – ESG Accounting

College/Division	College of Business and Economics
School/Section	Tasmanian School of Business and Economics (TSBE)
Location	Hobart
Classification	Level C
Reporting line	Reports to Discipline Lead, Accounting
Date	December 2022

Position Summary

The University of Tasmania is building a vision of a place-based University with a mission to enhance the intellectual, economic, social and cultural future of Tasmania, and from Tasmania, contribute to the world in areas of distinctive advantage. The University recognises that achieving this vision is dependent on the people we employ as well as creating a people-centred University that is values-based, relational, diverse, and development-focused.

This position is positioned within the College of Business and Economics.

We are seeking to appoint a Senior Industry Fellow in ESG Accounting in the Tasmanian School of Business and Economics. Industry expertise and passion for ESG (Environmental, Social and Governance) accounting practice is required which may incorporate but not limited to expertise in climate accounting and/or biodiversity accounting. Further to this, there is opportunity for a joint appointment and/or institute/organisation affiliation.

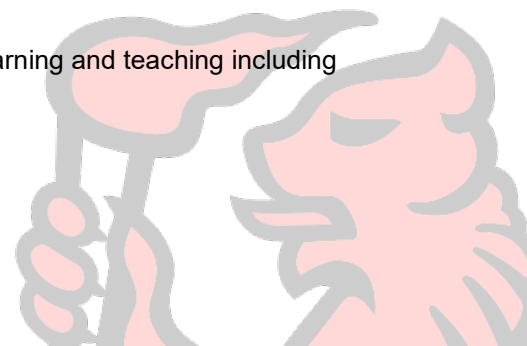

The Senior Industry Fellow will be expected to undertake undergraduate and postgraduate teaching of an exemplary nature, to provide academic leadership in learning and teaching including curriculum development, be actively engaged in establishing and maintaining links, and partnerships with academic, industry and professional communities, and will be expected to work collaboratively and collegially with fellow academics in the discipline and school.

The position is required to meet the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) requirements of a Scholarly/Instructional Practitioner.

We are an inclusive workplace committed to ‘working from the strength that diversity brings’ reflected in our Statement of Values. We are dedicated to attracting, retaining and developing our people and are committed to inclusive principles. We celebrate the range of diverse assets that gender identity, ethnicity, sexual orientation, disability, age and life course bring. Applications are encouraged from all sectors of the community. Tell us how we can make this job work for you.

What You'll Do

- Make a strong and sustained contribution to the University to achieve strategic objectives and fulfil operational responsibilities.
- Undertake scholarly undergraduate and postgraduate coursework teaching of an exemplary quality, using contemporary and innovative teaching techniques.
- Develop and cultivate linkages to facilitate strong industry linkages, and corresponding activities that contribute directly to employability and/or graduate outcomes.
- Provide academic leadership, particularly in fostering outstanding learning and teaching including curriculum development in the discipline and school.

- Contribute to the development and maintenance of productive and effective links inside the University and locally, nationally and internationally within the discipline, relevant interdisciplinary domains, profession, industry and/or wider community.
- Undertake other duties as assigned by the supervisor.

What We're Looking For (success criteria)

- A relevant Postgraduate business qualification in a relevant discipline field.
- Alignment with the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) requirements of a Scholarly/Instructional Practitioner.
- Relevant and current senior professional, business and/or consulting experience.
- Industry expertise in ESG accounting practice, such as climate accounting and/or biodiversity accounting.
- Demonstrated ability to stimulate, actively engage and educate a given audience.
- Demonstrated ability to work effectively and sensitively with others in a team environment, with an excellent ability to be agile and respond to change.
- A strong record of building and maintaining effective networks and interdisciplinary links at a local and national level within the discipline, profession, industry and wider community.
- Membership of a professional accounting body.

Other position requirements

- Regular travel between campuses may be required to deliver successful learning and teaching outcomes for the School.

COVID-19 requirements

- The University of Tasmania recognises that this is critical for the workforce at the University to protect the safety of our workforce and vulnerable Tasmanians.
- Applicants for this role must provide evidence of Covid-19 vaccination as a condition of employment, and maintain their vaccinated status on an ongoing basis.

University of Tasmania

The University of Tasmania is an institution with an enduring commitment to our state and community, and a strong global outlook. We are committed to enhancing the intellectual, economic, social and cultural future of Tasmania. Our Strategic Direction strongly reflects the University community's voice that our University must be place based but globally connected as well as regionally networked and designed to deliver quality access to higher education for the whole State.

We believe that from our unique position here in Tasmania we can impact the world through the contributions of our staff, students and graduates. We recognise that achieving this vision is dependent on the people we employ, as well as creating a university that is values-based, relational, diverse, and development-focused.

Check out more here:

<https://www.utas.edu.au/jobs>

<https://www.utas.edu.au/careers/our-people-values-and-behaviours>

The intention of this position description is to highlight the most important aspects, rather than to limit the scope or accountabilities of this role. Duties above may be altered in accordance with the changing requirements of the position.

