

Yorke and Northern LHN CenSTaR Candidate Pool Frequently Asked Questions

Yorke and Northern Local Health Network is now accepting applications into a centralised Candidate Pool for ongoing, part time, full time, temporary or casual employment from Registered Nurses (RN), Enrolled Nurses (EN), Registered Midwives (RM), Assistant in Nursing (AIN) and Personal Care Workers (PCW).

Welcome to Yorke and Northern Local Health Network

Yorke and Northern Local Health Network Inc. (YNLHN) aspire to be the best provider of rural and remote health services in Australia. YNLHN, through the inspiration and hard work of its people, delivers high quality and innovative health services to improve health outcomes for country South Australians.

YNLHN delivers a comprehensive range of health services in hospital, aged and community settings according to population needs. It focuses on integrating its service delivery with metropolitan hospitals and other service providers in country locations.

The safety and quality of health services in YNLHN is of primary importance. YNLHN participates in rigorous national accreditation processes and engages local community members to provide insight and knowledge about the needs of consumers and potential strategies to achieve the best service.

Central Staffing and Recruitment Team (CenSTaR)

CenSTaR is YNLHN's centrally coordinated nurse, midwifery and support care worker recruitment framework that allows a single 'point of entry' for new applicants seeking base grade employment in the Network as a RN, RM, EN, AIN or PCW.

Once applicants are successful for the centralised candidate pool, they will be eligible for employment into casual, temporary, or permanent positions in various setting such as acute, midwifery, aged care, surgical services, renal, chemotherapy, aboriginal health care, mental health and community (includes inpatient, outpatient, in-home and group services) across all sites within the YNLHN.
