The Faculty of Arts is one of the largest of the ten faculties at Monash University and is also one of the largest, most diverse and dynamic arts faculties in Australia. It delivers programs across five campuses: Clayton, Caulfield, Berwick, Malaysia and South Africa. The Faculty's courses are also increasingly available via distance education over the Internet.

As a large and diverse faculty, Monash Arts has particular strengths in the humanities, performing arts, languages and social sciences. It encourages the development of cutting-edge studies that operate at the intersection of traditional academic disciplines. Faculty offerings include the full range of the old and new humanities, from the classics to communications and media studies. Courses offered range from undergraduate diplomas and degrees, faculty certificates, graduate diploma programs through to postgraduate coursework and research degrees. Monash Arts is justly proud of the research capacity of its staff. Lecturers are working at the cutting edge in their fields, and they carry this expertise and enthusiasm into their teaching.

The Faculty has approximately 5,700 students (EFTSL), 500 staff (EFT) and annual revenue in excess of $100 million. More information can be found at; <http://www.arts.monash.edu.au/>.

The Sir Zelman Cowen School of Music is situated on Clayton campus. The classical performance stream is part of the Bachelor of Music Performance major, Honours, PhD and Masters programs alongside jazz and improvisation, popular music, composition, music technology, musicology and ethnomusicology. The classical program is a vibrant and active community of musicians working at the highest level, with opportunities for chamber music, orchestral performance and cross stylistic collaboration. The school has around 500 students (EFTSL) and 18 staff (EFT), and offers units at our Prato centre in Italy in addition to performance opportunities in partnership with industry and community. The school supports artistic research alongside other more traditional research endeavours and has a focus on Australian music.

A Level B academic is expected to make contributions to the teaching effort of the university and to carry out activities to maintain and develop her/his scholarly research and/or professional activities relevant to the profession or discipline.

The Lecturer will be an experienced performer of a classical instrument (for example piano, strings, winds, brass, percussion) with a national reputation, and is expected to make a significant contribution to the teaching of an area in the classical music performance program and the related learning outcomes in the undergraduate curriculum, including supervision and examination of students at Honours and postgraduate level. The Lecturer will also have a research background allowing them to develop and foster collaborative linkages and activities with colleagues, external agencies and institutions, as well as industry in order to contribute to the growth and profile of the school.
