Position Title:	Coordinator, Engagement and Impact - Industry
Classification:	ANU Officer Grade 6/7 (Administration)
Position No:
Responsible to:	Manager, Engagement and Impact
Number of positions that report to this role:	1
Delegation(s) Assigned:

PURPOSE STATEMENT:

The ANU College of Asia and the Pacific (CAP) leads intellectual engagement with the Asia-Pacific region through research, education and contributions to public debate, and seeks to set the international standard for scholarship concerning the region.

Within CAP, the Engagement and Impact team seeks to foster and nurture partnerships between CAP and the wider community, from industry, the public sector and civil society. The diversity of scholarship and teaching that spans disciplines and areas within CAP is reflected in the wide range of types of partnerships that the team works on daily, in close contact with Schools and external stakeholders. Building on current relationships with industry partners, the team will be looking to ensure consistent maintenance of existing relationships while developing new partnerships and expansion to new audiences. This is one example of the strategic planning that the Engagement and Impact team will facilitate. This sits alongside a busy portfolio of activities to continue to support and extend existing relationships to ensure continuity and longevity of existing relationships.

The Coordinator provides high-level support to the Engagement and Impact function of CAP with a focus on strategic and operational activities within the Industry portfolio, which includes government and community activities.

KEY ACCOUNTABILITY AREAS:

Position Dimension & Relationships:

Reporting to the Manager Engagement and Impact, the Coordinator ensures consistently high levels of professional service delivery for projects and events organised in accordance with School, College and University styles, policies and procedures.

The Coordinator will oversee the development of a range of projects with a variety of industry, public sector and civil society partners. The Coordinator will help shape and implement strategic planning for activities with an Industry focus, drawing on current resources and structures and providing input on future approaches.

Role Statement:

Under the broad direction of the Manager, Engagement and Impact, the Coordinator Engagement and Impact - Industry will:

1. Coordinate the existing strategic domestic partnerships, including, but not limited to, planning, documentation and budgeting
2. Oversee the budget and financial reporting for priority projects and coordinate a regular review of accounts. Prepare draft annual reports for the College Executive.
3. Work closely with the College Marketing and Communications team to ensure production of high quality marketing material including print and digital narratives and information about College Engagement and Impact partnerships.
4. Prepare business documentation and correspondence for the College including undertaking background research, collating and analysing data to inform discussion papers on key issues.
5. Liaise across the university with other Colleges, the PVC-Innovation and professional peers in the coordination and optimisation of the College's strategic partnerships

6. Negotiate and deliver a range of engagement and impact activities ranging from masterclasses to forums to consultancies.
7. Comply with all ANU policies and procedures, and in particular those relating to work health and safety and equal opportunity.
8. Undertake other duties as required, consistent with the classification of the position

SELECTION CRITERIA:

1. Relevant degree qualifications with demonstrated experience in project delivery in a complex environment or an equivalent combination of relevant experience and education/training. Experience working with Government or Industry on collaborative projects would be highly regarded.
2. Demonstrated influencing and negotiating skills as well as the ability to establish priorities and meet competing deadlines for self and others.
3. Demonstrated ability to provide training and coaching to junior team members and to assist with their supervision
4. Demonstrated analytical and problem solving skills, including experience in developing and improving administrative processes with the ability to research, innovate and analyse issues and provide flexible solutions.
5. Excellent communication skills, both written and oral, including a proven ability to liaise and negotiate effectively, and relate to a diverse range of stakeholders.
6. Demonstrated experience in monitoring a budget, providing reports and briefings and developing and communicating the potential benefits of recommended joint ventures.
7. A demonstrated high-level understanding of equal opportunity principles and policies and a commitment to their application in a University context.

ANU Officer Levels 6 and 7 are broad banded in this stream. It is expected that at the higher levels within the broadband occupants, through experience, will have developed skills and expertise enabling them to more independently perform the full range of duties at a higher level, and that more time will be spent on the more complex functions of the position
