

Position Description

Title	Residential Practitioner
Business unit	Young People in Residential Care
Location	185 Baillie Street, Horsham
Employment type	Casual
Reports to	House Supervisor

About Uniting

Uniting Vic.Tas is the community services organisation of the Uniting Church. We've been supporting people and families for over 100 years. We work alongside people of all ages in local communities in Victoria and Tasmania. Our services reach to Albury-Wodonga in the north, Mallacoota in East Gippsland, the Wimmera region in the west, and across Tasmania.

We empower children, young people and families to learn and thrive. We're there for people experiencing homelessness, drug and alcohol addiction or mental illness. We support people with disability to live the life they choose. We assist older people to maintain their independence and enjoy life. We provide opportunities to access training and meaningful employment. We're proud to welcome and support asylum seekers to our community. We work to empower people with the information, skills and tools they need to live a healthy, happy life.

As an organisation, we work in solidarity with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people as Australia's First Peoples and as the traditional owners and custodians of this land.

We celebrate diversity and value the lived experience of people of every ethnicity, faith, age, disability, culture, language, gender identity, sex and sexual orientation. We welcome lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, gender diverse and non-binary, intersex, and queer (LGBTIQ+) people at our services. We pledge to provide inclusive and non-discriminatory services.

Our purpose: To inspire people, enliven communities and confront injustice

Our values: We are imaginative, respectful, compassionate and bold

1. Position purpose

Residential Practitioners play a key role in the life of young people currently living in residential services. Practitioners will be required to accompany young people on outings whilst also supporting them to live safely within all our residential houses.

2. Scope

Budget:

Nil

People:

Nil

3. Relationships

Position Description Residential Practitioner

Internal

- Regular day to day interaction within the Residential Care team and young people using the Residential Service.

External

- Families, relatives, colleagues and staff from other agencies
- Police and the local community such as schools and colleges, as relevant to the welfare of the young people using the Residential Service.
- Department of Families, Fairness and Housing (DFFH)

4. Key responsibility areas

Service delivery

- Enter Undertake and lead shifts that promote the policies, practices and procedures of the Residential Service and meet all appropriate legislative and regulatory requirements.
- Promote the values and principles of the Service, taking action to minimize risk to people, equipment and property.
- Create an environment within the residential homes (including the Therapeutic service) that promotes positive respect for young persons and provide care which meets the requirement of the young persons as identified within their collaborative care plan.
- Undertake responsibilities as agreed with the Program Leader or Manager that assists in the smooth effective running of the home.
- Provide personal care that respects the dignity and privacy of the young persons and undertake a key worker role for a young person.
- When required assume responsibility for the home in the absence of a senior member of staff and act as shift leader.
- Proactively support colleagues when dealing with difficult situations to ensure any challenging behaviour is dealt with effectively and without injury to young persons, self and others.
- Work within the needs of the service, which will require working within the whole range of the home's operational hours.
- Carry out administration of medication in strict accordance with the care plan and policy & procedure.
- Attend case conferences, planning meetings and statutory reviews as required. Attend and chair where needed meetings and forums e.g. LAC reviews and Core groups; and contribute to the development of the Service's Child/Young Persons Care Strategy.
- Decisions made in relation to policies, practices and procedures should be reported to a more senior colleague for further advice, support and guidance, as they may impact on the care and wellbeing of the young persons.
- Be responsible for accurate cash handling and handling personal possessions of the young persons and the equipment and resources within the home.
- Respond to changing and conflicting priorities due to care plans, meetings, training priorities, case conferences and the constant changing needs of the young persons in their care.
- Undertake moving and handling activities, which include bending, stretching, reaching, pushing and twisting. And be involved in physical play activities and accompany young persons on outings.
- Undertake housekeeping duties such as cleaning and preparing meals and light snacks for young persons.
- Undertake personal care duties, which may involve the safe handling of body fluids.
- Effectively manage challenging behaviour by young persons using the service.
- Perform tasks listed using a Best Interest Framework to provide a quality service that ensures the best outcomes for young people.
- Apply established work procedures relevant to the program.

Position Description Residential Practitioner

- Assist with administrative functions including purchasing and inventory control.

Reporting

- Assist with the maintenance of accurate, timely and professional client file documentation, including standard forms, case notes, medication records, incident reports and support plans.
- Maintain and monitor administrative systems and participate in departmental monitoring and evaluation processes.

Quality and risk

- Carry out all responsibilities assigned to staff in relation to the Agency's Quality, Risk Management, Compliance and OH&S frameworks, policies, and procedures
- Comply with all relevant legislation and regulatory requirements, industry codes and standards and Agency policies and procedures.
- Assist with and support internal and external audit processes.
- Identify, manage and report risks, hazards, incidents or other concerns affecting day to day activities within the Agency, Program or Service area and continually improve work practices.
- Attend core and other safety related training including induction.

Personal accountability

- Compliance with Uniting's values, code of conduct, policies and procedures and relevant government legislation and standards where relevant.
- Cooperate with strategies to actively ensure the safety, protection and well-being of children who come into association with us.
- Ensure appropriate use of resources.
- Work collaboratively with Uniting (Victoria Tasmania) employees and external stakeholders in accordance with Uniting's values and professional standards of behaviour.
- Actively participate in initiatives to maintain, build upon and promote a positive and collaborative workplace.
- Identify opportunities to integrate and work collaboratively across teams.
- Take reasonable care for your own health and safety, and health and safety of others (to the extent required).
- Promote a positive safety culture by contributing to health and safety consultation and communication.
- Promptly respond to and report health and safety hazards, incidents and near misses to line management
- Attend mandatory training sessions (i.e. equal employment opportunity, health, and safety) and mandatory training specific to position.
- Declare anything that you become aware of through the course of your engagement which may impede your suitability to work with children and/or young people.
- Declare any potential or actual conflict of interest that you become aware of through the course of your engagement:
 - Based on a relationship with a current member of Uniting's workforce
 - Based on my ongoing work with another organisation

5. Person specification

Qualifications

- Certificate IV in Child, Youth and Family Intervention, or other relevant recognised qualification must be held or underway

Position Description Residential Practitioner

- If not included in your qualification, you will be required to complete the mandatory units of competency:
 - CHCMHS007 – Work effectively in trauma informed care
 - CHCPRT009 – Provide primary residential care
 - CHCCCS009 – Facilitate responsible behavior.
 - CHCPRT010 – Work with children and young people with complex trauma and attachment issues and needs

If the above conditions are not met, you must be willing to be enrolled and commence the minimum qualification training upon commencement of employment. This will occur during initial induction (first 2 weeks) before any direct care is provided.

It is expected that the mandatory units of competency (including the workplace hours and assessments) are completed within 12 weeks of enrolment. Additionally, if you are undertaking the minimum qualification, you are expected to complete the qualification within the timeframe prescribed by the education training provider.

Core selection criteria

- Values alignment: ability to demonstrate and authentically promote Uniting's values.
- Demonstrated ability to provide safe environments for children and young people and protect them from abuse and neglect.
- A firm understanding of trauma and attachment and the effects on childhood development and behavior.
- Strong skills in the provision of care, management and support of young people and their families from varying socio-economic, cultural and ethnic backgrounds. This includes the provision of support and effective communication with young people, including those with special needs and challenging behavior.
- Demonstrated ability to implement positive and empowering approaches and programs for young people and their family in residential environments.
- Knowledge of theories and practices relevant to vulnerable or 'at risk' young people and their development and behavior, including solid understanding of trauma.

6. We are a child safe organisation

Uniting is a child safe organisation and is committed in everyday practice to ensure the safety and wellbeing of all children, at all times. As a child safe organisation, employment with Uniting is subject to a satisfactory national (and international where relevant) police check and relevant Working With Children Check (and NDIS Worker Screening Check where relevant) to your State prior to commencement of any paid or unpaid work and/or participation in any service or undertaking.

This position description is subject to review and may change in accordance with Uniting's operational, service and consumer requirements.

7. Acknowledgement

I have read, understood, and accepted the above Position Description

Employee

Name:

Position Description Residential Practitioner

Signature:

Date: