ORGANISATIONAL CONTEXT

Everyone needs a platform to launch a satisfying career. At Monash, we give you the space and support to take your career in all kinds of exciting new directions. You'll have access to quality research, infrastructure and learning facilities, opportunities to collaborate internationally, as well as the grants you'll need to publish your work. We're a university full of energetic and enthusiastic minds, driven to challenge what's expected, expand what we know, and learn from other inspiring, empowering thinkers. Discover more at www.monash.edu.

Monash Arts is one of the largest, most diverse and dynamic arts faculties in Australia, with particular strengths in the humanities, performing arts, languages and social sciences. We encourage the development of innovative studies that operate at the intersection of traditional academic disciplines. The faculty delivers programs via eight schools and across six campuses, both in Australia and offshore, with courses ranging from undergraduate diplomas and degrees through to postgraduate coursework and research degrees. Monash Arts is justly proud of the research capacity of its staff, who work at the cutting edge in their fields and carry this expertise and enthusiasm into their teaching. To learn more about Monash Arts, please visit our website: <http://future.arts.monash.edu/>.

The advertised position is located within the School of Media, Film and Journalism. Based on the Caulfield campus, the School was formed in 2014 and its staff conducts research in media studies, communications studies, cultural studies, journalism, film theory and criticism, media practice and related interdisciplinary fields. The School offers programs and teaching at undergraduate, honours and postgraduate levels. It also houses a number of active interdisciplinary research units, has a wide network of national and international connections, and engages in international research collaborations. <http://artsonline.monash.edu.au/mfj/>

The Communications and Media Studies (C&MS) program operates within the School of Media, Film and Journalism. Researchers are engaged in a series of internationally-focussed projects that explain what it means to live in an age of powerful media and cultural institutions, proliferating digital and mobile technologies, and everyday media and cultural practices (e.g. social networking, surveillance, datafication). C&MS at Monash is also home to an agenda-setting 'Culture, Media, Economy' Research Focus Program (<https://arts.monash.edu/research/focus-programs/culture-media-economy/>).

C&MS research was rated as 'above world standard' in the 2015 ERA Exercise. Australian Research Council funded projects of staff include investigations into global media sport and mobile communications, urban cultural policy and cultural production, the economic and cultural dimensions of music exports, environmental conflict and media, creative vocations in Australia and China, the significance of music cities, and the exchange between 'fringe' and 'mainstream' cultural practices. Staff also supervise a wide range of PhD and Masters-by-Research projects.

Teaching in C&MS focusses on creating graduates who are critically informed citizens, professionals and consumers able to negotiate the challenges and opportunities of a global, networked media age. This is achieved by examining how media and communications shape the world in which students live, and the role they can play in changing this world for the better through their media practices, decisions and experiences. C&MS offers an undergraduate major to Honours level in the Bachelor of Arts, and the Media specialisation in the Bachelor of Media Communications. It has thriving graduate programs in the Master of Communications and Media Studies and the Master of Cultural and Creative Industries.

POSITION PURPOSE

A Level C academic is expected to make significant contributions to the teaching effort of a department, school, faculty or other organisational unit or an interdisciplinary area. An academic at this level is also expected to play a major role in developing and conducting academic and/or industry focused research and contribute to the development and engagement of the Department.

A Level C academic will be required to demonstrate this capacity by a record that includes evidence of quality refereed publications, competitive grant funding, and Higher Degree Research (HDR) supervision experience and/or completions.

The successful appointee will coordinate units, prepare and present lectures and/or seminars, undertake marking, contribute to curriculum development, and supervise Honours and HDR students. The units in which they will be involved will be negotiated on appointment and will change over time.

A Level C academic will be required to develop new units for the programs and potentially undertake a section level leadership role.

Reporting Line: The position reports to the Head of Communications and Media Studies
