Volunteer role description

Volunteer Visitor/Friend - Community Visitors Scheme - Sorell

Department	Social Inclusion
Availability	Flexible Days (Average 1-2 Hours per week)
Location	Hobart, Tasmania
Category	Working in the Community Visitor Scheme visiting elderly people receiving a Home Care Package in their own home.

Building an inclusive, diverse and active humanitarian movement based on voluntary service

Role purpose

To befriend and visit an elderly person in their own home to reduce the impacts of loneliness and social isolation.

Role responsibilities

- Visit the resident once a week but with a minimum of once per fortnight.
- Undertake activities that are appropriate to the resident. This may include listening to music together, playing cards or board games, reminiscing, reading, a trip out in the local area (only if both participants wish) or simply having a chat.
- Maintain confidentiality of information obtained during a visit unless this information must be disclosed to Red Cross to assist the participant.
- Maintain accurate records of visits to resident on allocated visit record sheets.

Knowledge, skills and experience

- Comfortable speaking to a broad range of culturally diverse residents.
- Show empathy for the mature aged, disadvantaged and socially isolated participants.
- At ease working independently in the home of an elderly individual.
- Experience interacting with elderly people.
- A current Tasmanian drivers licence and own mode of transport is preferred.

Check requirements

(A National Criminal History Check prior to commencement and renewed every three years (Red Cross will arrange this))

A Statutory Declaration is required for International volunteers

Learning and development

- Complete Red Cross online learning modules as required
- Complete Red Cross Volunteer Induction, Program Training and ongoing training as required
