ORGANISATIONAL CONTEXT

Monash is a university of transformation, progress and optimism. Our people are our most valued asset, with our academics among the best in the world and our professional staff revolutionising the way we operate as an organisation. For more information about our University and our exciting future, please visit www.monash.edu.

The Monash Law Faculty is consistently recognised as one of the world's leading Law schools. Our excellence in research, teaching and scholarship has been at the forefront of legal education for decades in Australia. We pride ourselves on offering real, tangible legal experience and international study opportunities, and equipping our students with an extensive legal education.

We offer a broad teaching base, with course offerings at every level. Our dedicated Monash University Law Chambers situated in the Melbourne Legal district complements our Clayton base and legal clinics in Oakleigh and Springvale. We also have an international presence in Prato Italy and Malaysia where we offer dedicated law units to our own students as well as students from other universities.

Our vibrant research culture is supported by a Commercial Law Group and three dedicated research centres: the Castan Centre for Human Rights Law, the Australian Centre for Justice Innovation and the Centre for Commercial Law and Regulatory Studies. We produce influential research that is doctrinal, theoretical, policy-orientated, and global and comparative in its outlook. We collaborate with world leaders in law research and education throughout Australia and internationally and have demonstrated top tier research intensive performance. Our staff are involved in ARC discovery grants and CRC projects.
