Overview of program

The purpose of Anglicare Victoria's Family Services Program is to strengthen families' capacity to meet the needs of their children. Family Services promotes the safety and wellbeing of children by supporting and empowering families to enhance parenting capacity and family functioning and therefore improve child outcomes.

Many of the families the program works with have long histories of involvement with both Child Protection and community agencies. As a result, they require flexible and innovative interventions to address multiple and complex needs, and to promote the best social, emotional, educational and health outcomes for their children. The service targets families with children newborn to 18 years living in Hume and Moreland areas of Melbourne. In this region, Family Services is delivered in the context of the Hume Moreland Child and Family Services Alliance, which is an alliance of five agencies and DFFH. Referrals to Family Services are from Hume Moreland Child FIRST, which is the central intake point for families needing assistance with the care and wellbeing of children in the Hume Moreland Region.

Family Services provides families with case management support within a managed case plan, designed to improve the lives of children. Practitioners work collaboratively and respectfully with children and families to build upon their existing strengths, and to enhance and develop families' skills and coping strategies. Individual family work is complemented by group work where appropriate, as well as strategies to both engage families with their communities, and for communities to be more responsive to the needs of children and their families.

4.	Strengthen family connections, promoting positive interactions and the health, wellbeing and safety needs of children, young people and families.
