About the University

The University of Western Australia (UWA) has over 100 years of proud history in research and teaching excellence. It is already ranked in the top 1% of the world's universities, one of the country's leading research institutions and the only state member of the prestigious "Group of Eight" research universities (<https://www.uwa.edu.au/About-us/About-UWA>). We aim to be one of the world's top 50 universities by 2050.

About the UWA Business School

The UWA Business School, ranked among the top Business Schools in Australia (3rd in 2022, 4th in 2023 by the AFR), has approximately 100 academic staff and 5000 students, offering undergraduate, master, MBA and PhD degrees (<https://www.uwa.edu.au/schools/Business>). We are accredited by the European Quality Improvement System (EQUIS) and the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB). We are a signatory to UNPRME.

About the Economics Department

The Economics Department is a leading research and education centre in Australia and the Indo-Pacific region. Our students rank amongst the brightest in Australia, as measured by the Australian Tertiary Admissions Rank (ATAR). The Department houses outstanding researchers who publish in leading international journals in several fields. For more information about our department, please visit <https://www.uwa.edu.au/schools/Business/Economics>.
